The Unbelievable Gospel Say Something Worth Believing:

The Unbelievable Gospel Jonathan K. Dodson, 2014-09-23 In The Unbelievable Gospel pastor Jonathan Dodson diagnoses the evangelistic paralysis of the modern church pinpointing the reasons people don't share their faith today and offering a desperately needed solution. Showing readers how to utilize the rich gospel metaphors found in Scripture and how to communicate a gospel worth believing, one that speaks to the heart-felt needs of diverse individuals. Dodson connects the gospel to the real issues people face each day by speaking to both the head and the heart. Filled with stories that reveal the long road of relational evangelism and guidance on how to listen to others well, The Unbelievable Gospel is a much-needed resource that will benefit both individuals and churches. Included are study questions for training and group discussion.

Unbelievable Gospel Jonathan K. Dodson, 2012-09-24 Very often people find the gospel unbelievable. Two groups of Christians contribute to this unbelief. The first group shares a gospel that is preachy, impersonal, intolerant, condescending, or shallow/mediocre news at best. We may mention who Jesus is even what he has done without lifting a finger to delve into the doubts and struggles people face. The second group remains silent, hoping their actions will remedy evangelistic concerns. The problem, however, is that the good news must be heard. Addressing each of these five important concerns, Unbelievable Gospel charts a wise and patient way forward in recovering a more believable evangelism. Using the concept of Gospel Metaphors illustrated with real-life stories, this book offers a way to listen to others in order to share a gospel worth believing.

Eschatological Discipleship Trevin Wax, 2018-04-01 Discipleship is eschatological in nature because the church that makes and receives disciples is eschatological in nature. Often eschatology is thought to refer only to last things/doctrines. However, eschatology in its broader sense encompasses the Christian view of time and the future of the world, informing both one's evangelism and ecclesiology. Failing to relate the eschatological dimension to discipleship leaves one with an incomplete worldview, imbalanced discipleship, and eventually a tragic inability to model the Christian way of life. By answering questions like "What time is it?" and "Where is history going?" Trevin Wax helps Christians view the past, present, and future biblically and shapes their understanding of following Jesus. Journey to the Cross Will Walker, Kendal Haug, 2017-01-16 Don't just give up something for Lent. Move closer to the heart of Easter through forty days of Bible readings, prayers of confession and thanksgiving, and devotional readings focused on Lenten themes of repentance, humility, suffering, lament, sacrifice, and death. This compact daily devotional will prepare your heart and rekindle your love. Sharing Jesus without Freaking Out Alvin Reid, 2017-04-01 You were born for this. God hardwired you yes, you for this. I'm talking about sharing Jesus with others. What if I told you evangelism is less about delivering a polished presentation and more about having a real conversation? What if I told you that God has created you to bring glory to himself by sharing Jesus with others and that you don't need years of training to obey what he already made you to do? God created you for his glory to advance his gospel with the gifts, talents, and opportunities he gave you. You live at this time in history for a purpose bigger than yourself In these pages you will read how to connect the gospel story with your story and how to talk about that story in normal conversations with people you know No gimmicks Nothing clever No need to freak out Just you Jesus and others in conversations that matter

Here in Spirit Jonathan K.
