Youth's Companion, 1915 Hitler M. Hauner, 2005-10-20 This detailed reference guide based on a vast amount of source data traces every known detail of Hitler's career with extensive quotation both from Hitler's own speeches and writings and from those of his contemporaries This new edition features an enlarged and updated bibliography and introduction Building Natures Julia Daniel, 2017-11-28 In Building Natures Julia Daniel establishes the influence of landscape architecture city planning and parks management on American poetry to show how modernists engaged with the green worlds and social playgrounds created by these new professions in the early twentieth century The modern poets who capture these parks in verse explore the aesthetic principles and often failed democratic ideals embedded in the designers verdant architectures The poetry of Carl Sandburg Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Marianne Moore foregrounds the artistry behind our most iconic green spaces At the same time it demonstrates how parks framed rather than ameliorated civic anxieties about an increasingly diverse population living and working in dense unhealthy urban centers Through a combination of ecocriticism urban studies and historical geography Building Natures unveils the neglected urban context for seemingly natural landscapes in several modernist poems such as Moore's An Octopus and Stevens's Notes Toward a Supreme Fiction while contributing to the dismantling of the organic/mechanic divide in modernist studies and ecocriticism The Yellow Peril: Dr. Fu Manchu and the Rise of Chinaphobia Christopher Frayling, 2014-10-14 An entirely new perspective on current scaremongering about China's global ambitions and on the Western media's ignorance of Chinese culture A hundred years ago a character who was to enter the bloodstream of 20th century popular culture made his first appearance in the world of literature In his day he became as well known as Count Dracula or Sherlock Holmes he was the evil genius called Dr Fu Manchu described at the beginning of the first story in which he appeared as the yellow peril incarnate in one man Why did the idea that the Chinese were a threat to Western civilization develop at precisely the time when China was in chaos divided against itself the victim of successive famines and utterly incapable of being a peril to anyone even if it had wanted to be Even the author of the Dr Fu Manchu novels Sax Rohmer acknowledged that China as a nation possess that elusive thing poise And what do the Chinese themselves make of all this Is it any wonder that they remember what we have carelessly forgotten the opium wars the unfair treaties that ceded Hong Kong and the New Territories and the stereotyping of Chinese people in allegedly factual studies Here cultural historian Christopher Frayling takes us to the heart of popular culture in the music hall pulp literature and the mass market press and shows how film amplifies our assumptions Popular Educator ,1914 The Literary Digest ,1915 Truth ,1902 The Actors of Postnational Rule-Making Elaine Fahey,2015-07-16 Despite its centrality to academic discussions of power and influence there is little consensus in legal scholarship over what constitutes an actor in rule making This book explores the range of actors involved in rule making within European Union law and Public International law and focuses especially on actors that are often overlooked by formative and doctrinal approaches Drawing together contributions from many scholars in various fields the book examines such issues as the accommodation of new actors in the process of postnational rule making the visibility or covertness of actors within the process and the role of social acceptance and legitimacy in postnational rule making In its endeavour to render and examine the work and effect of actors often side lined in the study of postnational rule making this book will be of great use and interest to students and scholars of EU law international law and socio legal studies
