Undine Trilogy Penni Russon:

Shakespearean Spaces in Australian Literary Adaptations for Children and Young Adults Michael

Marokakis, 2022-07-29 Shakespearean Spaces in Australian Literary Adaptations for Children and Young Adults offers a comprehensive examination of Shakespearean adaptations written by Australian authors for children and Young Adults The 20 year period crossing the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries came to represent a diverse and productive era of adapting Shakespeare in Australian literature As an analysis of Australian and international marketplaces physical and imaginative spaces and the body as a site of meaning this book reveals how the texts are ideologically bound to and disseminate Shakespearean cultural capital in contemporary ways Combining current research in children s literature and Bourdieu s theory of cultural capital deepens the critical awareness of the status of Australian literature while illuminating a corpus of literature underrepresented by the pre existing concentration on adaptations from other parts of the world Of particular interest is how these adaptations merge Shakespearean worlds with the spaces inhabited by young people such as the classroom the stage the imagination and the gendered body The readership of this book would be academics researchers and students of children s literature studies and Shakespeare studies particularly those interested in Shakespearean cultural theory transnational adaptation and literary appropriation High school educators and pre service teachers would also find this book valuable as they look to broaden and strengthen their use of adaptations to engage students in Shakespeare studies

Drift Penni Russon, 2013-09-01 The spellbinding conclusion to the magical Undine trilogy Undine thinks she could be happy living in a world where Stephen is still alive Back in the real world Trout could be happy too as long as he doesn t think about Undine s disappearance or why her shadow appears in his photographs Phoenix is new in town a drifter passing through with his conjuring tricks But they can t keep drifting forever and one hot summer night their worlds collide Coincidence or confluence Illusion or reality Trout isn t sure he wants an answer and Phoenix isn t telling All Undine knows is that she must find a way to return home Someone is calling her name Sister come to me Eat the Sky, Drink the Ocean Kirsty Murray, Payal Dhar, Anita Roy, 2017-03-07 Nineteen contributors from India and Australia including Printz Award winning author Margo Lanagan and New York Times bestsellers Justine Larbalestier and Samhita Arni team up to create a rare treat of speculative literature in this groundbreaking feminist collection that bursts with imagination Kirkus Reviews starred review A post apocalyptic Little Red Riding Hood Girls and boys turning the tables on creepy old cat callers Female pirates rescuing abused women A futuristic cooking show These are just a few of the stories told in Eat the Sky Drink the Ocean a feminist speculative fiction collection born of a collaboration between Australian and Indian writers Finding themselves inspired to action after crimes against women dominated national conversations the editors of this collection paired writers and illustrators from India and Australia together to write stories graphic novels and even a play that reimagine what girls can be and see themselves as The results are stunning Some of the authors worked together some wrote stories along a similar theme but all seventeen stories blend magical realism and self confidence in a powerful and inspiring way

The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

Something Special, Something Rare Black Inc., 2015-03-31 Something Special Something Rare presents outstanding short fiction by Australia's finest female writers These are tales of love secrets doubt and torment the everyday and the extraordinary A sleepy town is gripped by delusory grief after the movie being filmed there wraps and leaves A lingering heartbreak is replayed on Facebook An ordinary family walks a shaky line between hopelessness and redemption Brilliant shocking and profound these tales will leave you reeling in ways that only a great short story can Kate Grenville Mandy Sayer Penni Russon Favel Parrett Tegan Bennett Daylight Sonya Hartnett Isabelle Li Gillian Essex Brenda Walker Gillian Mears Fiona MacFarlane Joan London Karen Hitchcock Charlotte Wood Tara June Winch Cate Kennedy Alice Pung Anna Krien Delia Falconer Rebekah Clarkson This collection is a fantastic line up of some of Australia's best writers who simply happen to be women the themes explored are as wide ranging and eclectic as the writers Sunday Age All the stories here justify that use of out standing in the collection's subtitle If pushed to choose one standout for me it is Favel Parrett's Lebanon which in its three pages manages to convey more emotion than some stories do in 300 This beautiful meditation on loss and belonging evokes the Australian tyranny of distance and is a fine example what the short story form can achieve The Australian Perfect fodder for a Sunday arvo on the couch these charming funny touching short stories from well known Australian female writers are what winter was made for Cosmopolitan A wonderful selection the strength of the collection is that it doesn't define the Australian woman writer as a particular situation and includes writers from various social and cultural backgrounds Artshub
