University Adaptation in Difficult Economic Times Paola Mattei, 2014 Despite the fact that universities are at the centre of knowledge creation and development which itself is seen as one of the main engines of economic growth public funding of higher education in most countries is not increasing or at least not increasing enough in real terms This volume explores new funding schemes and incentives introduced in many European higher education systems including competitive funding schemes for research under the name of excellence policies The World Politics of Social Investment: Volume I Julian L. Garritzmann, Silja Häusermann, Bruno Palier, 2022-04-19 The World Politics of Social Investment Welfare States in the 21st Century is the first of two volumes of the World Politics of Social Investment WOPSI project which systematically maps and explains different welfare reform strategies in democratic countries around the world The World Politics of Social Investment: Volume II Julian L. Besharov, Karen J. Baehler, Jacob Alex Klerman, 2016-12-21 The government performance movement has been in full swing for decades around the world So why do so many public programs and organizations continue to underperform A major reason is that measuring the types of performance that people value most real outcomes for citizens continues to be an elusive goal And why is performance measurement so difficult Because performance managers have not taken full advantage of the tools and knowledge available in the field of program evaluation the worlds of performance measurement and program evaluation have much to learn from each other but they remain largely separate for reasons of history politics and inertia Improving Public Services spotlights recent advances in the theory and practice of performance measurement with potential to bridge the divide As the text s essays case studies and comparative analyses demonstrate many of the challenges to outcome based performance measurement are similar across national and cultural boundaries And many of these challenges are amenable to solutions drawn from program evaluation especially program theory as captured in logic models Key issues addressed include designing and implementing high performance contracts using administrative data to measure performance and evaluate program effectiveness minimizing the unintended consequences of performance based incentive schemes measuring qualities of governance as well as service delivery and fitting performance systems to different institutional settings The authors offer insights relevant to charitable organizations private service providers international bodies municipalities states and national governments in developed developing and transitional countries As the global debate over performance management rages on this volume points to promising directions for future research and practice at the intersection of program evaluation and outcome based public management The Politics of Welfare in the Global South Sattwick Dey Biswas,Cleopas Gabriel Sambo,Sony Pellissery,2024-09-17 This book is a comprehensive reference for conducting political analyses of emerging welfare systems in the Global South It places a central emphasis on decolonizing social policy literature by developing empirically grounded theories and concepts illuminating societies in both the Global South and North These case studies contribute to theoretical generalizations capable of explaining universal principles that are relevant to both the Global South and North Youth Labor in Transition Jacqueline O'Reilly,Janine Leschke,Renate Ortlieb,Martin Seeleib-Kaiser,Paola Villa,2018-11-07 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Exacerbated by the Great Recession youth transitions to employment and adulthood have become increasingly protracted precarious and differentiated by gender ethnicity and socioeconomic status Examining employment transitions affected by family and migration Youth Labor in Transition argues for an integrated analysis of the sphere of economic production and social reproduction if policy intervention is to be effective Decent Incomes for All Bea Cantillon,Tim Goedemé,John Hills,2019 For more than a decade organizations such as the IMF OECD and the ILO have issued concerns about the trend of increased inequality in rich welfare states while influential thinkers and think tanks have come to agree on at least one central point globalization and technological progress have exacerbated the existing inequities in social market economies Across Europe despite high social spending and work related welfare reforms poverty remains a largely intractable problem for policymakers and the persistent reality for citizens In Decent Incomes for All the authors shed new light on recent poverty trends in the European Union and the corresponding responses by European welfare states They analyze the effect of social and fiscal policies before during and after the recent economic crisis and study the impact of alternative policy packages on poverty and inequality The book also explores how social investment and local initiatives of social innovation can contribute to tackling poverty while recognizing that there are indeed structural constraints on the increase of the social floor and difficult trade offs involved in reconciling work and poverty reduction Differences across countries are however stark which suggests that there are lessons to be learned and policy changes to be applied if the political will exists International Economic Policies John Hein,1983 Vietnam Economic Times ,2004 Journal of Economic Literature ,1994 Health Progress ,1992 Yearbook of International Organizations, 1992-93 Union of International Associations Staff,1992 Yearbook of international organizations v 3 International University Co-operation International Association of Universities.
