what undoubtedly will be a stellar literary career Adrian McKinty Brennan impressed me hugely with his debut novella The Point and Wee Rockets has cemented my opinion that he belongs among the top rank of Northern Irish crime writers Loitering With Intent So assured and mature you'd think this was his eight or ninth book not one of his first Spinetingler Magazine This is a tremendous book and I urge you to read it I Meant To Read That From the author I think the main theme is that of nature versus nurture The characters are presented as products of their environment I don't think it's a judgemental book it simply shows you how these kids and adults react to certain situations The reader may not always approve of the action taken but hopefully they can understand what has informed it It's also an exploration into how good people can do bad things and bad people can do good I've purposely tried to blur that line so that the characters aren't simply black or white Morally they operate in shades of grey It's my hope that a character you hated in the first chapter can grow into a hero by the final act and vice versa
