Pastoral Counseling for Orphans and Vulnerable Children Tuntufye Anangisye Mwenisongole,Elia Shabani Mligo,2018-04-27 The existence of orphans is as inevitable to most African cities and the world as it is death These orphans are caused by the death of one or both parents due to various reasons including the scourge of HIV and AIDS Being orphans most of them are vulnerable to difficult lives because they have nobody to fend for them and take care of their lives They lack adequate food living expenses school fees and care since their current guardians are also in adverse economic situations In such situations orphans end up living a life of hopelessness and trauma which makes them deeply remember their dead parents and the care they received from them before death Following the vulnerable situation of most orphans this book through a study done in the Tanzanian context challenges churches to extend their counseling and caring ministries to Orphans and Vulnerable Children OVC It purports that the use of narrative approach is the most effective way to enter into the world of vulnerable children in order to provide pastoral counseling to them This approach helps pastoral counselors to use life stories proverbs biblical narratives plays arts songs riddles poems symbols and images as healing and coping mechanisms for OVC Therefore this book is helpful not only to churches and their ministry to orphans and vulnerable children but also to those who care for orphans in their homes Moreover it will be helpful to children who live in adverse conditions worldwide to find ways to cope with their situations through the stories of children used inside this book

Gender and Education in Kenya Esther Mukewa Lisanza, 2021-04-28 Gender and Education in Kenya explores the intersections of curriculum pedagogy policy and gender The contributors study depictions of gender in textbooks the presence and roles of girls and women within classrooms in Kenya and female leadership in education arguing that despite recent policies put in place by the Kenyan government to ensure gender parity in education there is still a need to make curriculum more gender responsive Gender and Education in Kenya examines the disparity between male and female representation in education and advocate for more training for teachers about gender related educational policies and implementing gender responsive objectives in classrooms The collection concludes with a study of the intersection of gender and disability with a chapter that explores the additional challenges for a blind girl in school and the lack of policies in place to help disabled students The Journal of Intercultural Studies , 1990
