Testament of Youth Vera Brittain,1935 Publishers, Readers and the Great War Vincent Trott,2017-10-05 Literature is at the heart of popular understandings of the First World War in Britain and has perpetuated a popular memory of the conflict centred on disillusionment horror and futility This book examines how and why literature has had this impact exploring the role played by authors publishers and readers in constructing the memory of the war since 1918 It demonstrates that publishers were as influential as authors in shaping perceptions of the conflict and it provides a detailed analysis of critical and popular responses to war books tracing the evolution of readers attitudes to the war between 1918 and 2014 By exploring the cultural legacy of the war from these two previously overlooked perspectives Vincent Trott offers fresh insights regarding the emergence of a collective memory of the First World War in Britain Drawing on a broad range of primary source material including publishers correspondence dust jackets adverts book reviews and diary entries and examining canonical authors such as Wilfred Owen Siegfried Sassoon and Vera Brittain alongside long forgotten texts and more recent autobiographical works by Harry Patch and Henry Allingham Publishers Readers and the Great War provides a rich and nuanced analysis of the climate within which First World War literature was written published and received since 1918 The Vision Catriona P.F. McCaleb,Emerson College,1998 Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik,Del Ivan Janik,2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer s background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Vera Brittain Paul Berry,Mark Bostridge,1995 The definitive biography of this controversial writer pacifist and feminist

Chronicle of Youth Vera Brittain,2002 Vera Brittain s bestselling TESTAMENT OF YOUTH was based on her own copious diaries which have a much greater intimacy than the account written for publication These are those diaries They begin in the carefree summer of 1913 with a blossoming romance and earnest discussions about the purpose of life and the nature of God but not about the onset of war which takes them by surprise The diary entries begin to darken rapidly Her brother her fianc and most of their young men friends are killed in the war Vera herself goes from knitting helmets and bandaging classes to abandoning her studies at Oxford to train as a nurse She spent the remainder of the war nursing war wounded men among them German prisoners Her diaries written in London Malta and France contain moving descriptions of battle scenes and Zeppelin horrors over London

British Identity in World War I Mary K. Laurents,2020-12-10 This book analyzes the development of the Lost Generation narrative following the First World War The author examines narratives that illustrate the fracture of upper class identity including well known examples of the Lost Generation Robert Graves Siegfried Sassoon and Vera Brittain as well as other less typical cases George Mallory and JRR Tolkien to demonstrate the effects of the First World War on British society culture and politics
