Hess,Pratibha A. Dabholkar,2020-10-02 Whether as a curiosity or a beloved idol Gene Kelly 1912 1996 lives on in our cultural memory as a fantastic dancer in MGM musicals especially Singin in the Rain But dancing however extraordinary was only one of his many gifts This book for the first time offers a full picture of Gene Kelly as the Renaissance man he actually was dancer yes but also choreographer actor clown singer director teacher and mentor Kelly was star of radio and television as well as film avant garde as artist and auteur but also ahead of the curve in opening the world of dance to differences of race ethnicity and gender Gene Kelly The Making of a Creative Legend takes us from Kelly s youth in Depression era Pittsburgh through his years on Broadway and ascendance to stardom in Hollywood Authors Hess and Dabholkar pay particular attention to his work with the US Navy solo directing and lesser known but considerable accomplishments in television radio and on the stage in later years The book gives us a rare inside look at Kelly s relationships with dancing partners and peers from Leslie Caron Vera Ellen and Cyd Charisse to Fred Astaire and at his directorial collaboration with Stanley Donen and Vincent Minnelli and at his solo directing The authors show us significant but little examined facets of Kelly's character and career such as the political convictions that got him graylisted in Hollywood his passion for creating cine dance and serving as an ambassador of dance in America and his forging of links between dance civil rights and the common man Steeped in research and replete with photographs this career biography uniquely encompasses all phases of Gene Kelly's life and work and finally gives us a full portrait of this central figure in the history of the film musical during Hollywood's Golden Age Michael Curtiz Alan K. Rode, 2017-11-17 Academy Award winning director Michael Curtiz 1886 1962 whose best known films include Casablanca 1942 Yankee Doodle Dandy 1942 Mildred Pierce 1945 and White Christmas 1954 was in many ways the anti auteur During his unprecedented twenty seven year tenure at Warner Bros he directed swashbuckling adventures westerns musicals war epics romances historical dramas horror films tearjerkers melodramas comedies and film noir masterpieces The director's staggering output of 180 films surpasses that of the legendary John Ford and exceeds the combined total of films directed by George Cukor Victor Fleming and Howard Hawks In the first biography of this colorful instinctual artist Alan K Rode illuminates the life and work of one of the film industry's most complex figures He explores the director's little known early life and career in his native Hungary revealing how Curtiz shaped the earliest days of silent cinema in Europe before immigrating to the United States in 1926 In Hollywood Curtiz earned a reputation for explosive tantrums his difficulty with English and disregard for the well being of others However few directors elicited more memorable portrayals from their casts and ten different actors delivered Oscar nominated performances under his direction In addition to his study of the director's remarkable legacy Rode investigates Curtiz's dramatic personal life discussing his enduring creative partnership with his wife screenwriter Bess Meredyth as well as his numerous affairs and children born of his extramarital relationships This meticulously researched biography provides a nuanced understanding of one of the most talented filmmakers of Hollywood's golden age Attitudes & Arabesques, 1998 Index 2003 American Academy in Rome, 2003 Essays by Cornelia Lauf Lester Little and Dana Prescott
