these new protest theologies were emerging Thomson recalls the influences that went into forming her as the theologian she became She specialized in hermeneutics looking for stars and compasses that might guide her theology into these new territories with a willingness to listen to the Christian tradition for its life giving words and a willingness to critique it for the ideologies it carried This double hermeneutic can be seen throughout her work The chapters in this book are divided thematically into five parts Theology and Teaching Public Theology The Church The Atonement and Being Human Her interests in feminist and liberation theologies inform each theme so that she might pass on theology better than she received it
