Zion's Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence, 1929 The Christological Witness Function of the Old Testament Characters in the Gospel of John Sanghee M. Ahn, 2014-06-01 This book investigates the narrative function of the Old Testament characters in the Gospel of John. The fascinating thesis is that the Hebrew characters in John's narrative uniformly function as a witness for the messianic identity of Jesus. The Jewish scriptural traditions, Hebrew and intertestamental ones, are compared to shed light on John's indebtedness for its formation of his Christology. A compelling argument ensues which informs our understanding not only of the Gospel itself but also of Jesus Christ revealed in the Gospel. COMMENDATION Dr. Ahn's thorough and careful study represents a solid contribution from which many will benefit. All serious interpreters of the Johannine witness will want to refer to this work. Mark A. Seifrid, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, USA The Witness of Jesus, Paul and John Larry R. Helyer, 2023-07-17 This book introduces the reader to the discipline of biblical theology. In part one Helyer discusses the central problem of the unity of the Bible and the various options that have been proposed. He then argues for a vital connection between the testaments forming one grand story of redemptive history and one central theme: the coming kingdom of God. Part two takes up the theology of three major witnesses: Jesus, Paul, and John. In these three witnesses Helyer finds the center of New Testament thought. He emphasizes the importance of Jesus' teaching as foundational for all the other New Testament witnesses. Without overlooking the diversity and individuality of the major witnesses, he clearly demonstrates the theological unity that binds them together and provides the key to the enduring message of Scripture. The Witness to the Influence of Christ William Boyd Carpenter, 1905 Witnesses for Christ Edward Backhouse, Charles Tylor, 1894 Witnesses of Jehovah Leonard Chretien, Marjorie Chretien, 1988 Friends Witness to Scriptural Truth, 1908
