Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, Peniel Rajkumar, 2013-01-11 This volume provides an important resource for those wishing to gain an overview of significant issues in contemporary missiology whilst understanding how they are applied in particular contexts Contributors from across the globe and from different Christian traditions explore foundations for mission The chapters examine in what ways experience the Bible and theology are foundational for mission and how they together inform the missional thought of different traditions The book also raises questions about the continued use of foundations as a helpful metaphor mission reflection and impetus Graduate students and scholars surveying the field will find this a useful and accessible way to understand changing trends within mission studies Contemporary Pentecostal Christianity J. Kwabena Asamoah-Gyadu, 2013-01-11 Pentecostalism is the fastest growing stream of Christianity in the world The real evidence for the significance of Pentecostalism lies in the actual churches they have built and the numbers they attract In Africa Pentecostalism has virtually become the representative face of Christianity with even historic mission denominations pentecostalising their otherwise formal liturgical structures to survive This work interprets key theological and missiological themes in African Pentecostalism by using material from the live experiences of the movement itself An important source of primary material for instance is the popular books written by the leadership of contemporary Pentecostal churches and their media programs An example of this is that on account of its motivational hermeneutics the Eagle rather than the Dove has become the preferred symbol of the Holy Spirit in this nascent dynamic movement The interpretation of themes from contemporary African Pentecostalism in this book reveals much about how as a contemporary movement it is reshaping African Christian spirituality in the 21st century An Historiography of Twentieth-Century Women's Missionary Nursing Through the Lives of Two Sisters Sara Ashencaen Crabtree, 2023-12-19 This volume draws on a trove of unpublished original material from the pre 1940s to the present to offer a unique historiographic study of twentieth century Methodist missionary work and women s active expression of faith practised at the critical confluence of historical and global changes The study focuses on two English Methodist missionary nursing sisters and siblings Audrey and Muriel Chalkely whose words and experiences are captured in detail foregrounding tumultuous socio political changes of the end of Empire and post Independence in twentieth century Kenya and South India The work presents a timely revision to prevailing post colonial critiques in placing the fundamental importance of human relationships centre stage Offering a detailed auto biographical and reflective narrative this herstory pivots on three main thematic strands relating to people place and passion where socio cultural details are vividly explored The book will appeal to a wide range of readers both the interested public and the academic alike where a lively entertaining literary style introduces readers to the politics of women s lives and principle and professional service foreground ethno class caste oppression emancipation conflict commitments and religious tensions It reveals the human vulnerable qualities of these women illuminating their stories and courageous choices
