Montgomery, 2011-08-11

The standard location tool for full length plays published in collections and anthologies in England and the United States since the beginning of the 20th century Ottemiller's Index to Plays in Collections has undergone seven previous editions the latest in 1988 covering 1900 through 1985 In this new edition Denise Montgomery has expanded the volume to include collections published in the entire English speaking world through 2000 and beyond This new volume lists more than 3 500 new plays and 2 000 new authors as well as birth and or death information for hundreds of authors Representing the largest expansion between editions this updated volume is a valuable resource for libraries worldwide Echoes of the Holocaust on the American Musical Stage Jessica Hillman, 2012-10-16

With chapters on The Sound of Music Milk and Honey Fiddler on the Roof Cabaret The Rothschilds Rags Ragtime and The Producers this book examines both direct and indirect references to or resonances of the Holocaust tracing changing American attitudes through the chronological progression of these musical productions and their subsequent revivals Despite the abundance of writing on both musical theatre history and on the difficulties of Holocaust representation history and theatre scholars alike have thus far ignored the intersections of these areas The academy thereby risks excluding precisely those works that shed the most light on our culture's evolving response to the Shoah an event that still helps to define American identity This book redresses this lapse by focusing on the theatrical form seen by the greatest amount of people musicals which either trigger or reflect changing American mores Vietnam Protest Theatre Nora M. Alter, 1996-05-22

a thoughtful and important treatment of the international tensions of the period as they were embodied in theatre practice It is the only book of its kind on the subject and a valuable source of production information Theatre Journal an excellent discussion of the aesthetics of theater Choice The escalation of the war in Vietnam in the mid 1960s unleashed worldwide protest Playwrights grappled with the complexities of post imperialist politics and with the problems of creating effective political theatre in the television age The ephemeral theatre these writers created today little known and rarely studied provides an important window on a complex moment in culture and history The Theatre of Genocide Robert Skloot, 2008-01-09

In this pioneering volume Robert Skloot brings together four plays three of which are published here for the first time that fearlessly explore the face of modern genocide The scripts deal with the destruction of four targeted populations Armenians in Lorne Shirinian's Exile in the Cradle Cambodians in Catherine Filloux's Silence of God Bosnian

Muslims in Kitty Felde's A Patch of Earth and Rwandan Tutsis in Erik Ehn's Maria Kizito Taken together these four plays erase the boundaries of theatrical realism to present stories that probe the actions of the perpetrators and the suffering of their victims A major artistic contribution to the study of the history and effects of genocide this collection carries on the important journey toward understanding the terror and trauma to which the modern world has so often been witness
