The Top Ten Death Penalty Myths The Politics Of Crime Control:

The Top Ten Death Penalty Myths Rudolph J. Gerber, John M. Johnson, 2007-11-30 The death penalty remains one of the most controversial issues in the United States Its proponents claim many things in their defense of its continued application For example they claim that it deters crime that death by lethal injection is painless and humane that it is racially neutral and that it provides closure to families of the victims In this comprehensive review of the major death penalty issues the authors systematically dismantle each one of these myths about capital punishment in a hard hitting critique of how our social political and community leaders have used fear and myth symbolic politics to misrepresent the death penalty as a public policy issue They successfully demonstrate how our political and community leaders have used myth and emotional appeals to misrepresent the facts about capital executions Successive chapters address the following topics the notion of community bonding the expectation of effective crime fighting the desire for equal justice deterrence the hope for fidelity to the Constitution the claim of error free justice closure retribution cost effectiveness and the messianic desires of some politicians In each of these areas the authors quote from death penalty advocates making these claims and then proceed to analyze and ultimately dismember the claimed advantages of the death penalty

Corrections Jeanne B. Stinchcomb, 2011-05-03 Jeanne Stinchcomb s book makes an excellent contribution to the field of corrections serving as a substantial resource for those teaching corrections and as a practical inspiration for those students who will ultimately lead the profession Stinchcomb carefully crafts a balanced perspective that presents a powerful argument for why corrections is an important and necessary part of our criminal justice system while at the same time cautioning that justice can only be served when corrections is implemented with integrity and held to the highest of professional standards This book will dare those who care about corrections to move beyond the ease of accepting the status quo to optimistically embracing the greater challenges of implementing a just and effective system of corrections Faith E Lutze Ph D Washington State University Written by a master teacher with over a decade of experience in federal state and local justice agencies this is the most comprehensive yet affordable corrections text on the market Students will like everything about it from the reasonable cost to the user friendly narrative that keeps them engaged Chapters are written with the passion of a former correctional trainer and administrator while balancing both sides of every issue Based on proven concepts of instructional design the narrative features measurable learning outcomes that are placed strategically throughout the chapters material is presented in a building block method designed to enhance learning Close up on Corrections boxes reinforce content with real life stories and examples Realistic insights are provided into virtually every aspect of the correctional conglomerate from the impact of sentencing policies to the effects of institutional life and the difficulties of re entry Unlike most other texts an entire chapter is devoted to the correctional workforce which gives students insights into the challenges as well as rewards of such employment Best of all for the instructor the book s flexibility and supplemental material make it a breeze to use in the classroom Electronic versions are available for online and hybrid courses and it is customizable in inexpensive paperback form The instructor s manual written entirely by the Author of the text itself includes over 500 high quality test questions directly correlated with each learning outcome featured in the text along with annotated websites teaching tips and powerpoint slides
