Hampshire in 1783 was an eminent Masonic scholar and lecturer who studied directly under Thomas Smith Webb and played a significant role in disseminating Webb's adaptation of William Preston's work throughout all Masonic jurisdictions in the United States. His True Masonic Chart or Hieroglyphic Monitor is perhaps the best representation of that work in that it contains elaborate illustrations specifically developed to accompany Webb's lectures. Apart from providing the foundation for the engravings in Masonic monitors in the centuries that followed, Cross invented a number of composite symbols still utilized in Masonic lectures today, perhaps the most significant being the broken column and weeping virgin that appear on the cover.

The True Masonic Chart, Or Hieroglyphic Monitor Jeremy Ladd Cross, 2017-10-25. Excerpt from The True Masonic Chart or Hieroglyphic Monitor Containing All the Emblems Explained in the Degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, Master Mason, Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master, Royal Arch, Royal Master, and Select Master Councils, Chapters and Lodges in the United States. The Author is well aware that in many parts of our country, which have been highly favoured with Masonic light and knowledge, a work of this kind would be of minor consequence; but there are many sections which have not been thus highly favoured, and here it would tend to advance the true interests of the Institution. The Author would improve this favourable opportunity in calling upon all Christian Masons to lend their aid in elevating the Institution to its proper level, by inculcating every Mason, by example, exhortation, and persuasion, to live up to the moral precepts which are inculcated in it, at the same time to guard them against relying on any merit in their own works as a title to that Reward beyond the grave, which is prepared for the children of God, and to point them to Him who is the War the T now and the Lira to the Lion of the tribe of Judah, to the great Warcuut of Israel, to our divine Ranztuza, whose name is the only name which is given under heaven, whereby men can be saved, who has made an atonement for sin by the shedding of his own blood, and who has promised that whosoever believeth on Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life.
