How to Land Ann Cooper Albright, 2019 How to Land Finding Ground in an Unstable World foregrounds the importance of embodiment as a means of surviving the disorientation of our twenty first century world Linking somatics and politics author Ann Cooper Albright argues that a renewed attention to gravity as both a metaphoric sensibility and a physical experience can help transform moments of personal disorientation into an opportunity to reflect on the important relationship between individual resiliency and communal responsibility Long one of the nation's preeminent thinkers in dance studies Albright asks how contemporary bodies are affected by repeated images of falling bodies bombed out buildings and displaced peoples as well as recurring evocations of global economies and governments in discursive free fall or dissolution What kind of fear gets lodged in connective tissue when there is an underlying anxiety that certain aspects of our world are in danger of falling apart To answer this question she draws on analyses of perception from cognitive studies tracing the discussions of meaning body and language through the work of Sara Ahmed Jean Luc Nancy and Shaun Gallagher among others In addition she follows the past decade of debate in contemporary media concerning the implications of the weightless and two dimensional social media exchanges on structures of attention and learning as well as their effect on the personal growth and socialization of a generation of young adults Each chapter interweaves discussions of movement actions with their cultural implications documenting specific bodily experiences and then tracing their ideological ripples out through the world

Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home Natalie Goldberg, 2018-06-05 A powerful memoir from Natalie Goldberg the woman who changed the way writing is taught in this country sharing her experience with cancer grounded in her practice of writing and Zen Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home begins at the grave of Katagiri Roshi Natalie s Zen teacher in Japan Twenty years after Katagiri s death and Natalie s return to New Mexico she is permanently settled in Santa Fe with her partner Yukwan Except that as Buddhism teaches us nothing is permanent Natalie learns that she has CLL a potentially fatal form of blood cancer For two years Natalie dances with her cancer visiting doctor after doctor attempting treatment after treatment Nothing helps in fact one of the treatments only feeds the cancer and encourages its growth Then Natalie s partner Yukwan discovers that she too has cancer breast cancer as well as an off the charts oncotype score that requires her to have surgery immediately The cancer twins as Natalie calls herself and Yukwan now must each navigate her own illness carve out her own cancer territory Each can provide only limited emotional and physical energy for the other And somehow they both need to find a way to stay together to stay in love and to heal As the title expresses Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home is so much more than a cancer memoir Through a direct and grounded narrative Natalie illuminates a path through illness that we need to be in love with the lives we have to embrace the dark and the light in our lives For Natalie writing and painting represent the light and her cancer takes her deeper into her art practices Balanced with a Zen practice that helps to her face death this book is a moving meditation on living life in full bloom Three Simple Lines Natalie Goldberg,2020-12-29 One of the world's foremost writing teachers invites readers on a joyful journey into the reading and origins of haiku A haiku is three simple lines But it is also as Allen Ginsberg put it three lines that make the mind leap A good one he said lets the mind experience a small sensation of space which is nothing less than God As many spiritual practices seek to do the haiku's spare yet acute noticing of the immediate and often ordinary grounds the reader in the pure awareness of now Natalie Goldberg is a delightfully companionable tour guide into this world She highlights the history of the form dating back to the seventeenth century shows why masters such as Basho and Issa are so revered discovers Chiyo ni an important woman haiku master and provides insight into writing and reading haiku A fellow seeker who travels to Japan to explore the birthplace of haiku Goldberg revels in everything she encounters including food and family painting and fashion frogs and ponds She also experiences and allows readers to share in the spontaneous and profound moments of enlightenment and awakening that haiku promises Writing Down the Bones Natalie Goldberg,2016-02-02 The all time best selling writer's handbook turns 30 With insight humor and practicality Natalie Goldberg inspires writers and would be writers to take the leap into writing skillfully and creatively She offers suggestions encouragement and solid advice on many aspects of the writer's craft on writing from first thoughts keep your hand moving don't cross out just get it on paper on listening writing is ninety percent listening the deeper you listen the better you write on using verbs verbs provide the energy of the sentence on overcoming doubts doubt is torture don't listen to it even on choosing a restaurant in which to write Goldberg sees writing as a practice that helps writers comprehend the value of their lives The advice in her book provided in short easy to read chapters with titles that reflect the author's witty approach Writing Is Not a McDonald's Hamburger Man Eats Car Be an Animal will inspire anyone who writes or who longs to The Great Spring Natalie Goldberg,2016-02-02 From the beloved writing teacher behind Writing Down the Bones comes a treasury of personal stories reflecting a life filled with journeys inner and outer zigzagging around the world and home again Here Natalie Goldberg shares those vivid moments that have wakened her to new ways of being We follow alongside her mapless meanderings in the New Mexican desert and her pilgrimages to Bob Dylan's birthplace and to Larry McMurtry's dusty Texas ghost town of rare books We feel her deep hunger while she sits zazen in a monastery in Japan and her profound loss when she hears of the passing of a dear friend while teaching in the French countryside Through it all she remains grounded in a life informed by two constants the practices of writing and of Zen With humor and insight Natalie encircles around the essential questions these paths compel her toward Where does this life lead Who are we This is a book to be relished one awakening at a time Each story is a reminder that no matter how hard the situation or desolate you may feel spring will come again breaking through a cold winter bringing early yellow forsythia flowers And the Great Spring of enlightenment that sudden rush of acceptance pain cracking open obstructions shattering will also burst forth
