The Unbearable Lightness Of Being Read Online:

The Unbearable Lightness of Being Milan Kundera, 1999-04-07 A young woman in love with a man torn between his love for her and his incorrigible womanizing one of his mistresses and her humbly faithful lover these are the two couples whose story is told in this masterful novel In a world in which lives are shaped by irrevocable choices and by fortuitous events a world in which everything occurs but once existence seems to lose its substance its weight Hence we feel the unbearable lightness of being not only as the consequence of our pristine actions but also in the public sphere and the two inevitably intertwine

Technology and English Studies James A. Inman, Beth L. Hewett, 2020-07-24 In scholarship about technology and English studies there are a number of first person narratives that suggest what may be termed traditional professional paths That is they chronicle the positive influence of a particular technology class professor or publication and suggest that it inspired a distinct and rewarding professional path What is missing is the rest of the story alternate ways that individuals have come to do work in technology and English studies and analysis of what this means for paths others might pursue Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths meets this need The volume begins with definitions of its three central terms technology English Studies and professional paths Chapters are organized in four sections reflecting both a chronological progression and thematic professional development The Past as the Future Searching the Academy Pushing Boundaries and Forging Beyond As a forerunner in addressing professionalization across the domains that comprise technology and English studies it will prove foundational for many readers with non traditional or otherwise alternate backgrounds who are working out what professional paths might be available to them Technology and English Studies Innovative Professional Paths is an important professional development resource for professors instructors and graduate students across the field of English studies including rhetoric and composition computers and writing computer assisted language learning literary and linguistic computing literary studies English education technical communication linguistics writing centers second language education ESL and creative writing

Bringing Down the House Angela Casella, 2022-03-07 They should be a disaster in the making Good thing they don't believe in words like should Nicole People think I'm crazy especially my ex boyfriends I prefer the term misunderstood Still there's no denying I have a stunning ability to make bad decisions like seducing the lead actor of the theater company where I just accepted a job An HR job In my defense Damien Mitchell is the most gorgeous man alive and worse he's interesting Besides I'm ninety percent sure my new boss is up to something shady Why should I behave if she won't I fully intend to find out what she's doing but in the meantime I'm reeled in by Damien The thing is it turns out he isn't just a fantastic actor at a crappy theater He's Well it's his secret But I promise it's a good one I'm going to help him with that and with saving the theater Whether he wants me to or not Damien I'm the only child of two rich narcissists I'm used to being alone I like it But Nicole's not the kind of woman who can be kept at a distance and to my surprise I don't want to stay away She sets my blood on fire and pisses me off and makes me feel alive in a way I d previously only experienced onstage I tell her my secrets I show her my scars I let her in We re both screwed up so there s every chance we ll destroy each other but she s not the only one who s prone to bad decisions A full length standalone prequel to the Bad Luck Club series Confessions of a Bookseller Shaun Bythell,2020-04-07 A funny memoir of a year in the life of a Scottish used bookseller as he stays afloat while managing staff customers and life in the village of Wigtown Inside a Georgian townhouse on the Wigtown highroad jammed with more than 100 000 books and a portly cat named Captain Shaun Bythell manages the daily ups and downs of running Scotland s largest used bookshop with a sharp eye and even sharper wit His account of one year behind the counter is something no book lover should miss Shaun drives to distant houses to buy private libraries meditates on the nature of independent bookstores There really does seem to be a serendipity about bookshops not just with finding books you never knew existed or that you ve been searching for but with people too and of course finds books for himself because he s a reader too The next best thing to visiting your favorite bookstore shop cat not included Confessions of a Bookseller is a warm and welcome memoir of a life in books It s for any reader looking for the kind of friend you meet in a bookstore Praise for Shaun Bythell and Confessions of a Bookseller Something of Bythell s curmudgeonly charm may be glimpsed in the slogan he scribbles on his shop s blackboard Avoid social interaction always carry a book The Washington Post Bythell s wicked pen and keen eye for the absurd recall what comic Ricky Gervais might say if he ran a bookshop The Wall Street Journal Irascibly droll and sometimes elegiac this is an engaging account of bookstore life from the vanishing front lines of the brick and mortar retail industry Bighearted sobering and humane Kirkus Reviews Amusing and often cantankerous stories that bibliophiles will delight in and occasionally wince at Publishers Weekly Your Creative Writing Masterclass Jurgen Wolff,2012-01-13 Don t tell me the moon is shining show me the glint of light on broken glass Anton Chekhov If you dream of being a writer why not learn from the best In Your Creative Writing Masterclass you ll find ideas techniques and encouragement from the most admired and respected contemporary and classic authors including Charles Dickens Jane Austen and Anton Chekhov Jurgen Wolff bestselling author of Your Writing Coach helps you translate these insights into action to master your craft and write what only you can write From Robert Louis Stevenson to Mary Shelley Alice Munro to Stephen King Your Creative Writing Masterclass guide you through finding your style constructing powerful plots generating story ideas overcoming writer s block creating vivid characters and crafting your ideal writer s life Brimming with support and suggested activities to develop your writing skills the book also features unique bonus advice exercises resources and sharing capabilities via the website www.YourCreativeWritingMasterclass.com Art, Spirituality and Economics Luk Bouckaert,Knut J. Ims,Peter Rona,2018-03-05 This volume celebrates the work of Laszlo Zsolnai a leading researcher and scholar in the field of the ethical and spiritual aspects of economic life who has made significant contributions to the connection between ethics spirituality aesthetics and economic theory The book offers a selection of essays concerned with the ethical spiritual and aesthetic context within which economics as a social studies discipline should be situated in order to avoid the sort of dehumanising consequences that theories based on utility maximisation and rational choice necessarily entail It presents the economic activities of human beings not as some sort of preordained obedience to universal laws that operate independently of other human concerns but rather as a part of the human desire for the Aristotelian good life It looks at the various considerations moral spiritual and aesthetic that take part in the formation of economic decisions in sharp contrast with theories that purport to explain economic phenomena solely on the basis of utility maximisation

Preventing Harmful Behaviour in Online Communities Zoe Alderton, 2022-04-11 Preventing Harmful Behaviour in Online Communities explores the ethics and logistics of censoring problematic communications online that might encourage a person to engage in harmful behaviour Using an approach based on theories of digital rhetoric and close primary source analysis Zoe Alderton draws on group dynamics research in relation to the way in which some online communities foster negative and destructive ideas encouraging community members to engage in practices including self harm disordered eating and suicide This book offers insight into the dangerous gap between the clinical community and caregivers versus the pro anorexia and pro self harm communities allowing caregivers or medical professionals to understand hidden online communities young people in their care may be part of It delves into the often unanticipated needs of those who band together to resist the healthcare community suggesting practical ways to address their concerns and encourage healing Chapters investigate the alarming ease with which ideas of self harm can infect people through personal contact community unease or even fiction and song and the potential of the internet to transmit self harmful ideas across countries and even periods of time The book also outlines the real nature of harm based communities online examining both their appeal and dangers while also examining self censorship and intervention methods for dealing with harmful content online Rather than pointing to punishment or censorship as best practice the book offers constructive guidelines that outline a more holistic approach based on the validity of expressing negative mood and the creation of safe peer support networks making it ideal reading for professionals protecting vulnerable people as well as students and academics in psychology mental health and social care Critical Architecture Jane Rendell, Jonathan Hill, Mark Dorrian, Murray Fraser, 2007-09-12 Critical Architecture examines the relationship between critical practice in architecture and architectural criticism Placing architecture in an interdisciplinary context the book explores architectural criticism with reference to modes of criticism in other disciplines specifically art criticism and considers how critical practice in architecture operates through a number of different modes buildings drawings and texts With forty essays by an international cast of leading architectural academics this accessible single source text on the topical subject of architectural criticism is ideal for undergraduate as well as post graduate study Everything Below the Waist Jennifer Block, 2024-03-26 Elle s 30 BEST BOOKS OF THE SUMMER A jaw dropping investigation into the women s health industry Shelf Awareness A fascinating examination of the past and present of women s healthcare Delfina V Barbiero USA TODAY A must read for women especially any woman who might ever need to see a doctor The Washington Post American women visit more doctors have more surgery and fill more prescriptions than men In Everything Below the Waist Jennifer Block asks Why is the life expectancy of women today declining relative to women in other high income countries and even relative to the generation before them Block examines several staples of modern women s health care from fertility technology to contraception to pelvic surgery to miscarriage treatment and finds that while overdiagnosis and overtreatment persist in medicine writ large they are particularly acute for women One third of mothers give birth by major surgery roughly half of women lose their uterus to hysterectomy Feminism turned the world upside down yet to a large extent the doctors office has remained stuck in time Block returns to the 1970s women s health movement to understand how in today s supposed age of empowerment women s bodies are still so vulnerable to medical control particularly their sex organs and as result their sex lives In this urgent book Block tells the stories of patients clinicians and reformers uncovering history and science that could revolutionize the standard of care and change the way women think about their health Everything Below the Waist challenges all people to take back control of their bodies Literature in Exile Irma Ratiani, 2016-09-23 This book brings together papers presented at an international conference held in Tbilisi Georgia in 2013 and organised by the Shota Rustaveli Institute of Georgian Literature and the Georgian Comparative Literature Association GCLA It represents the first in depth analysis of the different angles of the problem of emigration and emigrant writing so painful for the cultural history of Soviet countries as well as many other European countries with different political regimes It brings together scholars from Post Soviet countries as well as various other countries to discuss a range of issues surrounding emigration and emigrant writing highlighting the historical and cultural experience of each particular country The book deals with such significant problems as the fate of writers revolting against different political regimes conceptual stylistic and generic issues the matter of the emigrant author and the language of his fiction and the place of emigrant writers fiction within their national literatures and the world literary process Time Out Prague ,2004 As the newest member of the EU the Czech Republic formally sheds its East Bloc past but that development only formalizes what s been a rollercoaster of change since the Velvet Revolution in 1989 Written and researched by Prague residents the Time Out guide leads you to medieval Old Town s new design bars to the crusty Zizkov district s classic pubs to the romantic restaurants of Mala Strana and the hippest of clubs in the reclaimed industrial quarter of Holesovice The poet president Vaclav Havel may have stepped down and returned to scribbling but the opening up of Bohemia is still gaining momentum every year A mad community of expats call Prague home having been attracted like so many newly minted Bohemians down through the centuries by the city s affordable lifestyle gorgeously spooky architecture and reputation for decadence Meanwhile the Old European side of Mozart s adopted home beckons with improbably grandiose opera houses Vienna style coffee houses and fairy tale palaces that serve as gallery space like as not for the latest modern art experiments
