The Unequal Homeless The Unequal Homeless:

The Unequal Homeless Joanne Passaro, 1996 The Unequal Homeless focuses on the ways that the life chances of homeless people are very much determined by their positions in race gender and family values hierarchies Passaro uses her work on the homelessness in New York as a basis Citizen Hobo Todd DePastino, 2024-05-31 In the years following the Civil War a veritable army of homeless men swept across America's wageworkers frontier and forged a beguiling and bedeviling counterculture known as hobohemia Celebrating unfettered masculinity and jealously guarding the American road as the preserve of white manhood hoboes took command of downtown districts and swaggered onto center stage of the new urban culture Less obviously perhaps they also staked their own claims on the American polity claims that would in fact transform the very entitlements of American citizenship In this eye opening work of American history Todd DePastino tells the epic story of hobohemia's rise and fall and crafts a stunning new interpretation of the American century in the process Drawing on sources ranging from diaries letters and police reports to movies and memoirs Citizen Hobo breathes life into the largely forgotten world of the road but it also crucially shows how the hobo army so haunted the American body politic that it prompted the creation of an entirely new social order and political economy DePastino shows how hoboes with their reputation as dangers to civilization sexual savages and professional idlers became a cultural and political force influencing the creation of welfare state measures the promotion of mass consumption and the suburbanization of America Citizen Hobo's sweeping retelling of American nationhood in light of enduring struggles over home does more than chart the change from homelessness to houselessness In its breadth and scope the book offers nothing less than an essential new context for thinking about Americans' struggles against inequality and alienation International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home, 2012-10-09 Available online via SciVerse ScienceDirect or in print for a limited time only The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home Seven Volume Set is the first international reference work for housing scholars and professionals that uses studies in economics and finance psychology social policy sociology anthropology geography architecture law and other disciplines to create an international portrait of housing in all its facets from meanings of home at the microscale to impacts on macro economy This comprehensive work is edited by distinguished housing expert Susan J Smith together with Marja Elsinga Ong Seow Eng Lorna Fox O Mahony and Susan Wachter and a multi disciplinary editorial team of 20 world class scholars in all Working at the cutting edge of their subject liaising with an expert editorial advisory board and engaging with policy makers and professionals the editors have worked for almost five years to secure the quality reach relevance and coherence of this work A broad and inclusive table of contents signals or testifies to detailed investigation of historical and theoretical material as well as in depth analysis of current issues This seven volume set contains over 500 entries listed alphabetically but grouped into seven thematic sections including methods and approaches economics and finance environments home and homelessness institutions policy and welfare and well being Housing professionals both academics
