Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama Cormac O'Brien, 2021-12-10 This book charts the journey in terms of both stasis and change that masculinities and manhood have made in Irish drama and by extension in the broader culture and society from the 1960s to the present Examining a diverse corpus of drama and theatre events both mainstream and on the fringe this study critically elaborates a seismic shift in Irish masculinities This book argues then that Irish manhood has shifted from embodying and enacting post colonial concerns of nationalism and national identity to performing models of masculinity that are driven and moulded by the political and cultural practices of neoliberal capitalism Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama charts this shift through chapters on performing masculinity in plays set in both the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland and through several chapters that focus on Women s and Queer drama It thus takes its readers on a journey a journey that begins with an overtly patriarchal nationalist manhood that often made direct comment on the state of the nation and ultimately arrives at several arguably regressive forms of globalised masculinity which are couched in misaligned notions of individualism and free choice and that frequently perceive themselves as being in crisis

Replay: Classic Modern Drama Reimagined Toby Zinman, 2014-11-20 Replay Classic Modern Drama Reimagined spans over a century of great theatre to explore how iconic plays have been adapted and versioned by later writers to reflect or dissect the contemporary zeitgeist Starting with A Doll s House Ibsen s much reprised masterpiece of marital relations from 1879 Toby Zinman explores what made the play so controversial and shocking in its day before tracing how later reimaginings have reworked Ibsen s original The spine of plays then includes such landmark works as Strindberg s Miss Julie Oscar Wilde s comic The Importance of Being Earnest Chekhov s Three Sisters and Uncle Vanya Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun the Rattigan centenary revivals Thornton Wilder s Our Town ultimately arriving at Beckett s Waiting for Godot Taking each modern play as the starting point Zinman explores the diverse renderings and reworkings by subsequent playwrights and artists including prominent directors and their controversial productions as well as acknowledging reworkings in film opera and ballet Through the course of this groundbreaking study we discover not only how theatrical styles have changed but how society s attitude towards politics religion money gender sexuality and race have radically altered over the course of the century In turn Replay reveals how theatre can serve as both a reflection of our times and a provocation to them

The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic

Masculinity and Irish Popular Culture Conn Holohan, Tony Tracy, 2015-12-30 Masculinity and Irish Popular Culture Tiger s Tales is an interdisciplinary collection of essays by established and emerging scholars analysing the shifting representations of Irish men across a range of popular culture forms in the period of the Celtic Tiger and beyond
