The Translunar Narrative In The Western Tradition:

The Translunar Narrative in the Western Tradition Aaron Parrett, 2004 Long before Neil Armstrong made the first human footprints on the surface of Earth's Moon in 1969 writers have imagined what such a voyage would be like This book discusses the most famous translunar literary voyages from Dante's Paradiso to H G Wells's The First Men in the Moon and examines how humanity's fascination with flight away from the earth coincides with our anxiety about technology and the growing schism between the sciences and the humanities Authors of post Apollo era novels such as John Updike's Rabbit Redux and Saul Bellow's Mr Sammler's Planet reiterate much of the awe and many of the concerns expressed by their literary predecessors This study shows how the translunar narrative is an especially fruitful locus for examining the rift between the two cultures and how the translunar accounts might also be a place to begin searching for ways to overcome that rift

Feminist Formalism and Early Modern Women's Writing Lara Dodds, Michelle M. Dowd, 2022-05 This volume examines the relationship between gender and form in early modern women's writing by exploring women's debts to and appropriations of different literary genres and offering practical suggestions for the teaching of women's texts Classical Traditions in Science Fiction Brett M. Rogers, Benjamin Eldon Stevens, 2015-01-12 Classical Traditions in Science Fiction is the first collection in English dedicated to the rich study of science fiction's classical heritage offering a much needed mapping of its cultural and intellectual terrain The Stuff of Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2022-10-07 While students and general readers typically cannot relate to esoteric definitions of science fiction they readily understand the genre as a literature that characteristically deals with subjects such as new inventions space robot and aliens This book looks at science fiction in precisely this manner with twenty one chapters that each deal with a subject that is repeatedly addressed in science fiction of recent centuries Based on a packet of original essays that the author assembled for his classes the book could serve as a supplemental textbook in science fiction classes but also contains material of interest to science fiction scholars and others devoted to the genre In some cases chapters offer thorough surveys of numerous works involving certain subjects such as imagined vehicles journeys beneath the Earth and undersea adventures discovering intriguing patterns in the ways that various writers developed their ideas When comprehensive coverage of ubiquitous topics such as robots aliens and the planet Mars is impossible chapters focus on major themes referencing selected texts A conclusion discusses other science fiction subjects that were omitted for various reasons and a bibliography lists additional resources for the study of science fiction in general and the topics of each chapter Out of Earth's Cradle Aaron C. Parrett, 2001 Science-fiction Studies, 2008 Hodoeporics Revisited Luigi Monga, 2003 John Donne Journal, 2011 Montana, 2016 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Afro-future Females Marleen S. Barr, 2008 Afro Future Females Black Writers Chart Science Fiction's Newest New Wave Trajectory edited by Marleen S Barr is the first combined science fiction critical anthology and short story collection to focus upon black women via written and visual texts The volume creates a dialogue with existing theories of Afro Futurism in order to generate fresh ideas about how to apply race to science fiction studies in terms of gender The contributors including Hortense Spillers Samuel R Delany Octavia E Butler and Steven Barnes formulate a woman centered Afro Futurism by repositioning previously excluded fiction to redefine science fiction as a broader fantastic endeavor They articulate a platform for scholars to mount a vigorous argument in favor of redefining science fiction to encompass varieties of fantastic writing and therefore to include a range of black women s writing that would otherwise be excluded Afro Future Females builds upon Barr s previous work in black science fiction and fills a gap in the literature It is the first critical anthology to address the blackness of outer space fiction in terms of feminism emphasizing that it is necessary to revise the very nature of a genre that has been constructed in such a way as to exclude its new black participants Black science fiction writers alter genre conventions to change how we read and define science fiction itself The work s main point black science fiction is the most exciting literature of the nascent twenty first century
