The Trial and Death of Jesus Christ James Stalker,2014-08-18 Our study of the closing scenes of the life of our Lord begins at the point where He fell into the hands of the representatives of justice and this took place at the gate of Gethsemane and at the midnight hour On the eastern side of Jerusalem the ground slopes downwards to the bed of the Brook Kedron and on the further side of the stream rises the Mount of Olives The side of the hill was laid out in gardens or orchards belonging to the inhabitants of the city and Gethsemane was one of these There is no probability that the enclosure now pointed out to pilgrims at the foot of the hill is the actual spot or that the six aged olive trees which it contains are those to the silent shadows of which the Saviour used to resort but the scene cannot have been far away and the piety which lingers with awe in the traditional site cannot be much mistaken The Trial and Death of Jesus
