Making the Personal Political Jane Fenoulhet, 2017-12-02 Making the Personal Political is an interdisciplinary account of a now forgotten success story in the history of the society and culture of the Netherlands While Dutch women had apparently retreated into domesticity after gaining the vote in 1919 women writers were out there in the market place selling the inside story of women s lives Eight case studies of women writers between 1919 and 1970 trace the unconscious politics of the personal in narratives of women s identity and experience through close readings of texts located in the culture of the time Jane Fenoulhet whose knowledge of Dutch literature and culture in the twentieth century is unparalleled in the English speaking world tracks the public representation of women s private project of self development to the moment when the personal is finally accepted as politically important in Dutch society

Dutch Post-war Fiction

Film through a Lens of Psychoanalysis Peter Verstraten, 2025-10-01 Dutch Post war Fiction Film through a Lens of

Psychoanalysis is a sequel to Humour and Irony in Dutch Post war Fiction Film AUP 2016 but the two studies can be read separately Because of the sheer variety of Fons Rademakers oeuvre which spans art cinema and cult genre film and historical epics each chapter will start with one of his titles to introduce a key concept from psychoanalysis It is an oft voiced claim that

Dutch cinema strongly adheres to realism but this idea is put into perspective by using psychoanalytic theories on desire and fantasy In the vein of cinephilia this study brings together canonical titles Als twee druppels water Soldaat van Oranje and little gems Monsieur Hawarden Kracht It juxtaposes among others Gluckauf and De vliegende Hollander on father figures Flanagan and Spoorloos on rabbles and heroes De aanslag and Leedvermaak on historical traumas and Antonia and Bluebird on aphanisis

Dutch Culture Overseas Frances Gouda, 2008 European colonial expansion led to Dutch notions of civilised society or the Dutch s community s flexible and relatively charitable attitudes toward others being scattered as in the Greek word diaspeirein to the four corners of the earth In some cases the exportation of Dutch cultural values to places overseas like North America endowed Dutchness with subtle new meanings But in colonial Indonesia Dutch political customs and traditions were transformed in the process of migrating to exotic locales In this book Frances Gouda examines the ways in which the Netherlands portrayed its unique colonial style to the outside world Why were citizens of a small and politically insignificant European nation able to represent as natural and normal their dominance over ancient civilizations on islands such as Java and Bali How did Dutch colonial residents explain the cultural differences between themselves and the supposedly primitive peoples of the Indonesian archipelago In trying to understand the gendering practices of colonial governance in the Netherlands East Indies Gouda also explores the interactions of Dutch and Indonesian women with European men FRANCES GOUDA earned a Ph D in history from the University of Washington in Seattle in 1980 She is currently professor of history and gender studies in the Political Science Department of the University of Amsterdam
