Understanding Literacy Development A Global View:

Understanding Literacy Development Anne McKeough, Linda M. Phillips, Vianne Timmons, Judy Lee Lupart, 2006-04-21
The volume provides a global view of literacy development across cultures countries and circumstances It brings together leading experts in the field of literacy education to explore ways to provide teaching and learning opportunities

Understanding Literacy Development, 2006 Understanding Literacy Development Anne McKeough, Linda M. Phillips, Vianne Timmons, Judy Lee Lupart, 2006-04-21 The acquisition and maintenance of literacy is of pressing interest and concern to educators and educational policy makers worldwide What are the common themes the common questions and the unique circumstances and initiatives that spring from this interest and concern To address these questions Understanding Literacy Development A Global View brings together leading experts from around the world to explore ways to best provide teaching and learning opportunities tailored to specific educational needs to help all children become better readers The premise is that current generic one size fits all approaches are inappropriate for many children and can lead to underachievement and failure The contributors write from a stance that reflects not only their own particular expertise and experience but also sheds light on literacy development across cultures countries and circumstances Taken together chapters in this volume target a wide and comprehensive set of literacy issues and offer an extensive exploration of the complexities of literacy development including issues related to early literacy school instruction family literacy adolescent and adult literacy and teacher development At a time when education is burdened by increasing economic pressure to do more with less it is imperative that educators and decision makers at all levels have access to current broad ranging and in depth information and evidence to inform their choices This volume compiling critical research on a wide spectrum of literacy concerns is an invaluable tool for scholars teacher educators professionals and graduate students in the fields of literacy education early childhood education educational psychology educational policy and related areas Educational Psychology: Concepts, Research and Challenges Christine M. Rubie-Davies, 2010-11-29 Educational Psychology Concepts Research and Challenges brings together the latest research across many areas of educational psychology introducing and reporting on the most effective methodologies for studying teachers and learners and providing overviews of current debates within the field

Commonsense Methods for Children with Special Educational Needs Peter Westwood, 2007-03-06 Provides practical strategies for meeting children s special needs in regular classrooms including expanded chapters on learning difficulties behavior management and the teaching of literacy and numeracy skills The Development of Memory in Infancy and Childhood Mary L. Courage, Nelson Cowan, 2008-09-08 Human memory is not only the repository of our past but the essence of who we are As such it is of enduring fascination We marvel at its resilience in some situations and its fragility in others The origin of this extraordinary cognitive capacity in infancy and childhood is the focus of vigorous research and debate as we seek to understand the record of our earliest beginnings The first edition of this volume The Development of Memory in Childhood documented the state of the art science of memory development a decade ago This new edition The Development of Memory in Infancy and Childhood provides a thorough update and expansion of the previous text and offers reviews of new research on significant themes and ideas that have emerged since then Topics include basic memory processes in infants and toddlers the cognitive neuroscience of memory development the cognitive and social factors that underlie our memory for implicit and explicit events autobiographical memory and infantile amnesia working memory the role of strategies and knowledge in driving memory development and the impact of stress and emotion on these basic processes The book also includes applications of basic memory processes to a variety of real world settings from the courtroom to the classroom Including contributions from many of the best researchers in the field this classic yet contemporary volume will appeal to senior undergraduate and graduate students of developmental and cognitive psychology as well as to developmental psychologists who want a compendium of current reviews on key topics in memory development

Learning to Leave No One Behind Rui Niu,2008 Family Literacy Matters Linda Phillips,Ruth Hayden,Stephen P. Norris,2006 By following families over three years the authors have convincingly shown the power of a family literacy program to change lives At the broadest level their conclusions will come as little surprise to anyone in the literacy field the children with the greatest need benefited the most and parents with at least high school education could help their children the most The real richness of this volume however lies in the depth of detail The parents involved in the program told the researchers they were generally paying more attention to printed material reading more often and wanted to learn how to improve their literacy They became more sophisticated in gauging their children s literacy skills and more sure of their own abilities to help those children The Canadian Anthology of Social Studies Roland Case,Penney Clark,1999

Thinking Through Children's Literature in the Classroom Agustín Reyes-Torres,Luis S. Villacañas-de-Castro,Betlem Soler-Pardo,2014 Thinking Through Children s Literature in the Classroom approaches the use of literature as a crucial factor to motivate students not only to improve their literacy skills but also to develop their literary competence Book
