Veiled Sentiments Honor And Poetry In A Bedouin Society:

Veiled Sentiments Lila Abu-Lughod, 1986 A beautifully written almost poetic ethnography of the Bedouins in Egypt as well as a study of gender relations through analysis of their oral lyric poetry Veiled Sentiments Lila Abu-Lughod, 1990

Veiled Sentiments Lila Abu-Lughod, 1986 Selected Ghinnawas from Veiled Sentiments: Honor and Poetry in a Bedouin Society Lila Abu-Lughod, Artaud's Elbow, 2000 Palestinian Women Cheryl Rubenberg, 2001 This work provides a case study of the deleterious effects of patriarchy among Palestinians living in rural villages and refugee camps of the West Bank its negative consequences for men as well as women for democratization and for progress toward the creation of a more just society Reflecting Subjects Jacqueline Taylor, 2015-01-15 Jacqueline Taylor offers an original reconstruction of Hume's social theory which examines the passions and imagination in relation to institutions such as government and the economy Reflecting Subjects begins with a close examination of Hume's use of an experimental method to explain the origin nature and effects of pride an indirect passion that reflects a person's sense of self worth in virtue of her valuable qualities for example her character or wealth In explaining the origin of pride in terms of efficient causes Hume displaces the traditional appeal to final causes and is positioned to give an account of the significance for us of the passions in terms of a social theory Subsequent chapters reconstruct this social theory looking in particular at how the principle of sympathy functions to transmit cultural meanings and values before examining Hume's account of social power especially with regard to rank and sex Turning to Hume's system of ethics Taylor argues for the importance of Hume's more sophisticated moral philosophy in his Enquiry concerning the Principles of Morals since it emphasizes certain virtues of good moral evaluation She demonstrates that the principle of humanity stands as the central concept of Hume's Enlightenment philosophy

Everyday Life in the Muslim Middle East, Third Edition Donna Lee Bowen, Evelyn A. Early, Becky Schulthies, 2014-11-17 The substantially revised and updated third edition of Everyday Life in the Muslim Middle East focuses on the experiences of ordinary men women and children from the region Readers will gain a grassroots appreciation of Middle East life culture and society that recognizes the impact of wars and uprisings as well as changes to Islamic practice due to advances in technology The book also explores the influence of social media on politics and labor relations and the changing status of women family values marriage childrearing gender and gay rights This dynamic and imaginative volume continues to provide a rich resource for understanding contemporary Muslim culture in the Middle East Engendering Song Jane C. Sugarman, 1997-10-27 For Prespa Albanians both at home in Macedonia and in the diaspora the most opulent extravagant and socially significant events of any year are wedding celebrations Combining photographs song texts and vibrant recordings of the music with her own evocative descriptions ethnomusicologist Jane C Sugarman focuses her account of Prespa weddings on notions of gendered identity demonstrating the capacity of singing to generate and transform relations of power within Prespa society Modern Saudi Arabia Valerie Anishchenkova, 2020-06-01 This thematic encyclopedia examines contemporary and historical Saudi Arabia with entries that fall under such themes as geography history government and politics religion and thought food etiquette media and much more The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia known for its petroleum reserves and leadership role in the Middle East is explored in this latest addition to the Understanding Modern Nations series Organized into thematic chapters Modern Saudi Arabia covers both history and contemporary daily life Chapter topics include Geography History Government and Politics Economy Religion and Thought Social Classes and Ethnicity Gender Marriage and Sexuality Education Language Etiquette Literature and Drama Art and Architecture Music and Dance Food Leisure and Sports and Media and Popular Culture Each chapter contains an overview of the topic and alphabetized entries on examples of each theme A detailed historical timeline spans from prehistoric times to the present Special appendices are also included offering profiles of a typical day in the life of representative members of Saudi society a glossary key facts and figures about Saudi Arabia and a holiday chart This volume will be useful for readers looking for specific topical information and for those who want to read entire chapters to gain a deeper perspective on aspects of modern Saudi Arabia Carnival and Culture David D. Gilmore,1998-01-01 An exploration of the meanings of the Andalusian carnival focusing in particular on the songs or coplas The author offers translations of many of these carnival productions and contends that they are less about revolution or politics than about the ambivalence of all human feeling

Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico,1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Gender, Genre, and Power in South Asian Expressive Traditions

Arjun Appadurai, Frank J. Korom, Margaret A. Mills,2015-12-21 The authors cross the boundaries between anthropology folklore and history to cast new light on the relation between songs and stories reality and realism and rhythm and rhetoric in the expressive traditions of South Asia Crying Shame James M. Wilce,2009-02-11 Building on ethnographic fieldwork and extensive historical evidence Crying Shame analyzes lament across thousands of years and nearly every continent Explores the enduring power of lament expressing grief through crying songs often in a collective ritual context Draws on the author's extensive ethnographic fieldwork and unique long term engagement and participation in the phenomenon Offers a startling new perspective on the nature of modernity and postmodernity An important addition to growing literature on cultural globalization Sex, Risk, and Society Sarah H. Pollock,2025-05-01 When is sex abnormal and when is it dangerous A multi disciplinary approach that includes sociology anthropology history and philosophy provides an understanding of how cultural norms have shifted over time and the implications of these shifts Proposed definitions of abnormal and dangerous and their impact on public policies and practices are evaluated as are our contemporary assumptions about sex and sexuality and the consequences of those assumptions This should also serve as a toolkit for how to answer questions about sexuality such that readers can apply this model as new questions and social concerns about sex arise in the future The History of Emotions Jan Plamper,2015-01-22 The history of emotions is one of the fastest growing fields in current historical debate and this is the first book length introduction to the field synthesizing the current research and offering direction for future study The History of Emotions is organized around the debate between social constructivist and universalist theories of emotion that has shaped most emotions research in a variety of disciplines for more than a hundred years social constructivists believe that emotions are largely learned and subject to historical change while universalists insist on the timelessness and pan culturalism of emotions In historicizing and problematizing this binary Jan Plamper opens emotions research beyond constructivism and universalism he also maps a vast terrain of thought about feelings in anthropology philosophy sociology linguistics art history political science the life sciences from nineteenth century experimental psychology to the latest affective neuroscience and history from ancient times to the present day Practicing Islam in Egypt Aaron Rock-Singer,2019-01-03 Following the ideological disappointment of the 1967 Arab Israeli War an Islamic revival arose in Egypt Yet far from a mechanical reaction to the decline of secular nationalism this religious shift was the product of impassioned competition among Muslim Brothers Salafis and state institutions and their varied efforts to mobilize Egyptians to their respective projects By pulling together the linked stories of these diverse claimants to religious authority and tracing the social and intellectual history of everyday practices of piety Aaron Rock Singer shows how Islamic activists and institutions across the political spectrum reshaped daily practices in an effort to persuade followers to adopt novel models of religiosity In so doing he reveals how Egypt s Islamic revival emerged who it involved and why it continues to shape Egypt today Borders and Beyond: Orient-Occident Crossings in Literature Adam Bednarczyk,Magdalena Kubarek,Maciej Szatkowski,2019-01-25 The work presents articles discussing various subjects relating to literary cultural borders and borderlands as well as their crossings with the Orient and the Occident A broad multifaceted scope of the volume draws the attention of readers to the problem of liminal spaces between cultures genres codes and languages of literary and artistic communication The perspective of borderiness proposed by orientalist literary specialists culture experts provide insights into multi dimensional and heterogenic subjects and methods of consideration The authors referring to inter alia comparative studies theory of reception intertextuality transculturality of the East and West works touch upon themes such as coexistence exclusion crossing or the instability of borders Also by taking into account identity issues the interpenetration of various influences between different literatures poetics and languages the readers gain a broader context of intercultural dialogue between the Orient and Occident what allow them to transgress barriers of a purely artistic literary reception of the book contents The volume due to the abundance of proposed topics its heterogeneous representations and manifold approaches used in analysis discussion and re interpretations is a debate s record or a result of an academic reflection rather than a comprehensive monograph Love, Marriage, and Jewish Families Sylvia Barack Fishman, 2015-11-22 The concepts of gender love and family as well as the personal choices regarding gender role construction sexual and romantic liaisons and family formation have become more fluid under a society wide softening of boundaries hierarchies and protocols Sylvia Barack Fishman gathers the work of social historians and legal scholars who study transformations in the intimate realms of partnering and family construction among Jews Following a substantive introduction the volume casts a broad net Chapters explore the current situation in both the United States and Israel attending to what once were considered unconventional household arrangements including extended singlehood cohabitating couples single Jewish mothers and GLBTQ families along with the legal ramifications and religious backlash Together these essays demonstrate how changes in the understanding of male and female roles and expectations over the past few decades have contributed to a social revolution with profound and paradoxical effects on partnering marriage and family formation This diverse anthology with chapters focusing on demography ethnography and legal texts will interest scholars and students in Jewish studies women s and gender studies Israel studies and American Jewish history sociology and culture Multiculturalism Without Culture Anne Phillips, 2009-03-09 Multiculturalism without culture Between culture and cosmos What s wrong with cultural defence Autonomy coercion and constraint Exit and voice Multiculturalism without groups Rights at Work Michael W. McCann, 1994-07-15 McCann explains how wage discrimination battles have raised public legal consciousness and helped reform activists mobilize working women in the pay equity movement over the past two decades Rights at Work explores the political strategies in more than a dozen pay equity struggles since the late 1970s including battles of state employees in Washington and Connecticut as well as city employees in San Jose and Los Angeles Relying on interviews with over 140 union and feminist activists McCann shows that even when the courts failed to correct wage discrimination litigation and other forms of legal advocacy provided reformers with the legal discourse the understanding of legal rights and their constraints for defining and advancing their cause
