Midnightstar Natalie Erin, Megan Linski, Krisen Lison, 2021-03-18 The savior of the Lands is losing her mind Vampire werewolf hybrids have overcome the lands and taken the realm hostage Trapped within strange visions and new magic she doesn t understand the she wolf Midnightstar is running from both her pack and her destiny Famine and war are claiming young and old During her journey Midnightstar discovers she is the last skygazer a tremendously powerful spiritual warrior the missing link between the land of the living and the world of the dead Midnightstar is the only she wolf who can prevent the realm from falling into chaos at the hands of evil yet voices and terrifying visions haunt her at every turn If she cannot master her magic the very world will fall Her howl will lift over the realm to join the rebellion and the very stars will shift at her command Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials Songs and Programme for this Evening Bryant's Minstrels, 1864
