Women Behind Bars The Crisis Of Women In The Us Prison System:

Women Behind Bars Silja Talvi, 2007-11-02 An award winning investigative journalist examines increasing rates of women imprisonment in today's America in a report that draws on interviews with inmates, correctional officers and administrators to offer insight into the societal impact of female incarceration Original Women, Incarceration, and Human Rights Violations Alana Van Gundy, Amy Baumann-Grau, 2016-02-17 A rich examination of the neglect and abuses occurring to women in correctional facilities Women Incarceration and Human Rights Violations draws upon a wealth of case studies from around the world and class action lawsuits to shed light on covert abuse such as sexual or physical abuse as well as overt abuse such as the denial of medical treatment Adopting a feminist framework this book offers a comparative evaluation of abuse in domestic and international correctional facilities demonstrating the extent to which women are at high risk of being sexually abused and re-victimized in the correctional system where pregnancy and other specific medical and health issues are consistently ignored Calling attention to the necessity of addressing the gender specific needs of women who are incarcerated Women Incarceration and Human Rights Violations offers a review of current policy laws and regulation bearing on the issue while providing concrete recommendations and policy changes to address abuses As such it will appeal to sociologists, criminologists and policymakers concerned with questions of gender, penology and institutional abuse

Color behind Bars Scott W. Bowman, 2014-08-11 A diverse critical analysis of racial and ethnic disparities within the American criminal justice system that encourages critical thinking by providing various sides to the issues Low income African Americans, Latin Americans and American Indians bear the statistical brunt of policing, death penalty verdicts and sentencing disparities in the United States Why does this long standing inequity exist in a country where schoolchildren are taught to expect justice for all The original essays in this two volume set not only examine the deep rooted issues and lay out theories as to why racism remains a problem in our prison system but they also provide potential solutions to the problem The work gives a broad multicultural overview of the history of overrepresentation of ethnic minorities in our prison system examining white/black disparities as well as racism and issues of ethnic based discrimination concerning other ethnic minorities This up to date resource is ideally suited for undergraduate students who are enrolled in criminal justice or racial/ethnic studies classes and general readers interested in the U.S. criminal justice system

The American Prison Francis T. Cullen, Mary K. Stohr, 2014 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders The American Prison: Imagining a Different Future by Francis T. Cullen, Cheryl Lero Johnson and Mary K. Stohr pulls together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay

Wicked Women Dennis J. Stevens PhD, 2011-01-14 In Wicked Women Dennis Stevens a criminology professor and prison counselor shares the fascinating life stories of fifteen super predators detailing their early life experiences and criminal activities through the time they interacted with him in prison Withholding their names and identities he presents disturbing evidence and chronicles the long destructive journeys of these super predators Dr Stevens spent several years among high risk felons in some of the most heavily researched penitentiaries in America while teaching criminology at various universities He uses his vast professional experience to create fictional vignettes based on real life situations offering a glimpse into the souls of creatures who carry out wicked acts under the cover of a mask of sanity While presenting bizarre accounts of incredible human cruelty of every variety including border raids brutal beatings cannibalism rape and gang warfare Dr Stevens provides a never before seen look into the backgrounds and twisted minds of people like Margo a transgendered drug addict obsessed with setting fires and Mary a former New Orleans police officer convicted of killing her partner Without censorship or interference from political police Wicked Women presents eye opening unforgettable accounts of the outrageous thoughts and gruesome destruction of super predators
