Women's Studies of the Christian and Islamic Traditions Kari Elisabeth Børresen, K. Vogt, 2012-12-06 In this collection of articles Kari Elisabeth B resen and Kari Vogt point out the convergence of androcentric gender models in the Christian and Islamic traditions They provide extensive surveys of recent research in women s studies with bio socio cultural genderedness as their main analytical category Matristic writers from late Antiquity the Middle Ages and the Renaissance are analysed in terms of a female God language reshaping traditional theology The persisting androcentrism of 20th century Christianity and Islam as displayed in institutional documents promoting women s specific functions is critically exposed This volume presents a pioneering investigation of correlated Christian and Islamic gender models which has hitherto remained uncomparred by women s studies in religion This work will serve scholars and students in the humanistic disciplines of theology religious studies Islamic studies history of ideas Medieval philosophy and women s history Women in Fundamentalism Maxine L. Margolis,2019-10-10 Women in Fundamentalism examines the striking similarities in three extreme fundamentalist religious communities in their views about and treatment of women Whether Christian Jewish or Muslim the fundamentalist offshoots of these religions subject women to myriad restrictions in their daily lives All three seek to maintain male control over women s bodies women s activities and the people with whom women associate The three also share common ideologies about women s true nature and proper place The specific cases covered in this text are 1 Mormon polygamists specifically the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints FLDS who live in Utah Arizona Texas and isolated enclaves in Canada and Mexico 2 the Satmar Hasidim of Williamsburg Brooklyn Kiryas Joel a town in Orange County New York and several settlements in Israel and 3 an extreme brand of Islam practiced by the Pashtun ethnic group of Afghanistan and neighboring areas of Pakistan This book effectively bridges the disciplines of women s studies religion and anthropology making it a valuable resource for professors and students seeking new qualitative and quantitative material on women s positions in various religious traditions Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred,2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications Muslim Women Online Anna Piela,2013-06-17 While issues surrounding Muslim women are common in the international media the voices of Muslim women themselves are largely absent from media coverage and despite the rapidly increasing presence of Muslim women in online groups and discussions it is still a relatively unexplored topic This book examines Muslim women in transnational online groups and their views on education culture marriage sexuality work dress code race class and sisterhood Looking at both egalitarian and traditionalist Muslim women's views the author considers their interpretations of Islam and identifies a new category of holists who focus on developing the Islamic sisterhood Drawing on detailed analysis of online transcripts she highlights women's rhetorical techniques and the thorough knowledge of Islamic sources which they use to justify their points in online discussions She details how in the online context as opposed to offline interactions Muslim women are much more willing to cross boundaries between traditionalist and egalitarian interpretations of Islam and women's Islamic rights and responsibilities and to develop collaborative interpretations with supporters of different views Shedding light on a candid and forthright global community this book is an important contribution to the debate on women in Islam and as such will be of interest to scholars and students of Islamic studies gender studies media studies and the Middle East
