Radical Disciple Ian K. Duffield, Robert P. Hoch-Yidokodiltona, 2025-08-14 In Radical Disciple readers will be introduced to John Vincent's work by way of those who knew him best: students, friends, and colleagues. Each tells a story or offers a kind of testament, warts and all, as John would put it. In John Vincent's thinking, this is a serious kind of book; it relays the facts without missing the many splendored things. So along with the facts, readers will find the dramatic, amusing, serious, and anecdotal. Most importantly, they will find a living testament to John Vincent's vision of radical urban theology and discipleship.

Oceans of Feeling Ryan Walmsley, 2025-11-13 A groundbreaking exploration of postwar Caribbean migration to Britain, Oceans of Feeling offers the first historical analysis of this defining moment in modern British history using the tools, methods, and theories of the history of emotions. Decoding the emotional experiences and expressions of Windrush-era Caribbean migrants, this book reconstructs the migrant experience by asking not just what happened but how it felt individually and collectively, and how these feelings shaped and configured the course of historical events. Taking cues from spatial studies, the history of the senses, and the history of the body, Ryan Walmsley charts a rich and affectively meaningful course through the experiential content of the migrant condition in a specific historical moment. From the emotional bonds of the Mother Country ideology to the unique affective sensory atmospheres of transatlantic liners bound for Britain, Oceans of Feeling reveals exciting new dimensions to Windrush-era migration which have been masked under the canopies of social and political approaches. A reflection of the history of emotions' power to revivify historical narratives, this book interrogates the emotional causes and consequences of racist violence. In doing so, it reframes racism as a cluster of specific emotional concepts and expressions which provides fascinating insights into the lives of Caribbean migrants in this period. This includes linking the disproportionate designation of Caribbean children as educationally subnormal in British schools to a constellation of emotional stereotypes and experiences. It also explores private spaces such as dub and reggae house parties which migrants constructed as emotional refuge from the hostile atmosphere of public spaces and demonstrates how love and sex were politicised in the increasingly racialised atmosphere of postwar Britain.

Flourishing in Babylon Joe Aldred, 2024-04-30 Black theology has long been about oppression and liberation. But is there a different story to tell? Can the black story be one about a quest for flourishing through agency and self-determination, and not only an existence of nihilistic struggle? Drawing on a fresh reading of Jeremiah's letter to Jewish exiles and his own Pentecostal tradition, Joe Aldred offers a fresh understanding of the Black British experience which draws on a realised eschatology rooted in identity, empowerment, and an agenda. In a contested diasporan context, in the shadow of empire, there exists opportunity to fully flourish without apology, or as Jeremiah puts it, to those in exile: to settle, build, and grow.
