Schools of Opportunity Adam York, Kevin Welner, Linda Molner Kelley, 2023 The National Education Policy Center's Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school's average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation's myopic focus on standardized test scores the program's focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley

Frameworks for Multi-Tiered Systems of Support for Trauma-Informed Educational Settings Aniano, Jennifer Lauren, 2025-05-02 The use of multi tiered systems of support MTSS in schools has implications for social and cultural development It provides the opportunity for empowerment and inclusion of students who are often overlooked or struggling to adapt such as multilingual neurodiverse and sexually exploited students Increased competency in understanding and utilizing MTSS may provide teachers with opportunities for professional development Effective teacher training is often necessary for creating affirming safe and equitable educational environments Further research into the MTSS framework may challenge educators to include social and restorative justice practices in the classroom Frameworks for Multi Tiered Systems of Support for Trauma Informed Educational Settings highlights the importance of anti racism cultural competence and social emotional learning in education settings It explores the role of social justice and restorative justice in building trauma informed educational settings Covering topics such as anti racist education family therapy and math anxiety this book is an excellent resource for school administrators policymakers educators researchers academicians and more Research Anthology on Interventions in Student Behavior and Misconduct Management Association, Information Resources,2022-06-03 Academic classrooms in both K 12 and higher education feature diverse students with many different backgrounds personalities and attitudes toward learning A large challenge in education is not only catering to each of these students to motivate them to learn but also the many strategies in handling diverse forms of academic misconduct It is essential for educators and administrators to be knowledgeable not only about disciplinary actions but also intervention methods that will create a lasting impact for student success The Research Anthology on Interventions in Student Behavior and Misconduct provides the best practices strategies challenges and interventions for managing student behavior and misconduct It discusses intervention and disciplinary methods both at the classroom and administrative levels This book focuses on the prevention of school violence and academic misconduct in order to promote successful learning Covering topics such as learning behavior student empowerment and social emotional learning this major reference work is an essential resource for school counselors faculty and administration of both K 12 and higher education libraries pre service teachers child psychologists student advocacy organizations researchers and academicians Developing Trauma-Informed Teachers Ofelia Schepers,Megan Brennan,Philip E. Bernhardt,2022-07-01 Trauma is a public health crisis High rates of trauma exposure among youth and the impact that experiences of trauma can have on students psychosocial and academic outcomes are well established These traumatic events do not live outside of the scope of schools and teaching As children and teachers develop communities within their classrooms and schools trauma comes with those who have experienced it whether invited or not Bien Motta 2012 These experiences capture many facets of students lives including traumatic events however many teachers indicate that they feel unprepared to address students who have experienced trauma in meaningful and sustainable ways Caringi et al 2015 In response many schools and districts have adopted trauma informed practices Overstreet Chafouleas 2016 This text addresses the gap in the literature in embedding trauma informed practices into pre service teacher education This text provides examples of the various ways educator preparation faculty are developing and implementing trauma informed practices across their programs instituting broader curricular shifts to incorporate trauma informed practices shifting pedagogical practices to include trauma informed practices and collaborating across disciplines in order to ensure that teacher candidates are thoughtfully prepared to address students needs and create classroom environments that are equitable safe and sustainable for students and teachers
