and in the artists and art critics in her Bloomsbury Group circle there is no accessible edition or selection of essays dedicated to her writings on art This newest edition in David Zwirner Books's ekphrasis series collects her longest essay on painting Walter Sickert A Conversation 1934 alongside shorter essays and reviews including Pictures 1925 and Pictures and Portraits 1920 These formally inventive texts reveal the centrality of the visual arts to Woolf's writing and vision They show her engaging with contemporary debates about modern art and are innovative in their treatment of ideas about color and form including in response to the work of her sister the painter Vanessa Bell who designed many of her book cover jackets In these essays and reviews Woolf illuminates the complex and interdependent relationship between the artist and society and reveals her own shifting perspectives during decades of social and political change She also provides sharp and astute commentary on specific works of art and on the relationship between art and writing An introduction by Claudia Tobin situates the essays within their cultural contexts From formlessness to order Stephanie Chernikowski, 1966 Orlando Virginia
