Ararat Associations Dick Tahta, 2006 When he first saw Atom Egoyan's film Ararat Dick Tahta was intrigued by the many associations it summoned up for him The film is crammed with brief conversations and scenes that linked with memories of his childhood in a small Armenian community in Manchester in the nineteen thirties and with the various aspects of Armenian culture that are as in any immigrant community carefully nourished by Armenians all over the world Above all the film delicately raises the issue of what later generations have made of the terrible experiences of their ancestors in the last years of the Ottoman Empire As well as giving a penetrating insight into Egoyan's film Tahta offers some fascinating interpretations of Armenian history religion language and literature His digressions into youthful memories family history and his own travels through Eastern Anatolia give this book a warm and personal feel Dick Tahta was born in Manchester of parents who had survived the events of 1915 They were keen for their children to have an English education but made sure that they spoke Armenian at home As a second generation immigrant he was interested like some of the characters in the film in the nature of identity and its definition by criteria other than ethnicity He raised four children with his late wife Hilary he was a mathematics teacher and then a university lecturer Now he is retired and is a widower and grandfather Library Journal ,2003 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Latin Style ,2002
