Phillips Oppenheim, 2005-10 Purchase one of 1st World Library's Classic Books and help support our free internet library of downloadable eBooks Visit us online at www.1stWorldLibrary.ORG It was late summer time and the perfume of flowers stole into the darkened room through the half opened window The sunlight forced its way through a chink in the blind and stretched across the floor in strange zigzag fashion From without came the pleasant murmur of bees and many lazier insects floating over the gorgeous flower beds resting for a while on the clematis which had made the piazza a blaze of purple splendour And inside in a high backed chair there sat a man his arms folded his eyes fixed steadily upon vacancy As he sat then so had he at for a whole day and a whole night The faint sweet chorus of glad living things which alone broke the deep silence of the house seemed neither to disturb nor interest him He sat there like a man turned to stone his forehead riven by one deep line his straight firm mouth set close and hard His servant the only living being who had approached him had set food by his side which now and then he had mechanically taken Changeless as a sphinx he had sat there in darkness and in light whilst sunlight had changed to moonlight and the songs of the birds had given place to the low murmuring of frogs from a lake below the lawns The Yellow Crayon (Classic Reprint) E. Phillips

Oppenheim, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from The Yellow Crayon At last it seemed that his unnatural fit had passed away He stretched out his hand and struck a silver gong which had been left within his reach Almost immediately a man pale faced with full dark eyes and olive complexion dressed in the sombre garb of an indoor servant stood at his elbow Duseon Your Grace Bring wine Burgundy It was before him served with almost incredible despatch a small cobwebbed bottle and a glass of quaint shape on which were beautifully emblazoned a coronet and fleur de lis He drank slowly and deliberately When he set the glass down it was empty Duseon Your Grace You will pack my things and your own We shall leave for New York this evening Telegraph to the Holland House for rooms For how many days your Grace We shall not return here Pay off all the servants save two of the most trustworthy who will remain as caretakers The man's face was as immovable as his master's And Madame Madame will not be returning She will have no further use for her maid See however that her clothes and all her personal belongings remain absolutely undisturbed Has your Grace any further orders About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
