New German Literature Julian Preece, Frank Finlay, Ruth J. Owen, 2007 Twenty five essays by scholars from the UK Ireland Germany and Australia explore two aspects of new German language literature The first dozen studies focus on the variety and depth of the dialogue in the sense of reciprocal influences between literature photography film painting architecture and music The remaining essays alight on Life Writing in most of its forms diaries memoirs autobiographies and autobiographical fiction and examine its centrality in recent years in German literature not least because of the shadow which World War Two continues to cast over national life

Cultural Exchange in German Literature Eleoma Joshua, Robert Vilain, 2007 The influence of foreign cultures on German literature and other cultural productions since the 18th century The Edinburgh German Yearbook is devoted to German Studies in an international context It publishes original English and German language contributions on a wide range of topics from scholars around the world Each volume is based on a single broad theme the first includes papers from the highly successful conference Kennst du das Land Cultural Exchange in German Literature held in Edinburgh in December 2006 supplemented by additional essays The conviction that German culture and the German spirit are triumphantly unique has played a notorious role in Germany's history It is nonetheless acknowledged that German literature has been significantly influenced by non German sources and the search for what is unique about Germany and German literature must incorporate an awareness of these This volume provides a wide ranging investigation into how German literature from the 18th century to the present day reflects interactions between German and non German cultures Alongside theoretical and historical reflections on the nature of cultural exchange contributions explore literary reception the boundaries of and movement between cultures and Germany's literary political cultural and religious relations with both near neighbors and far flung cultural interlocutors Contributors Christian Moser Birgit Tautz Silvia Horsch Eleoma Joshua Gauti Kristmannsson Sabine Wilke Daniela Krümer Jon Hughes Thomas Martinec Margaret Litter Lyn Marven Dirk Göttsche Susanne Kord Eleoma Joshua is Lecturer in German at Edinburgh University Robert Vilain is Professor of German and Comparative Literature at Royal Holloway University of London The journal's General Editor is Sarah Colvin Professor of German at Edinburgh University

The Reception of Classical German Literature in England, 1760-1860, Volume 7 John Boening, 2020-01-31 The extensive scope of this collection means that this documentary record of the reception of German literature in England is a valuable scholarly resource One of the most important features of British literary and intellectual history over the past 250 years is the influence of German literature From the second half of the 18th Century through the first decades of the 19th German books and ideas attracted then gained the attention of a nation Despite the acknowledged importance of the influence on writers such as Coleridge and Carlyle the subject though often alluded to was rarely studied This collection provides a guidebook through the masses of periodical and allows the English side of the Anglo German literary relationship to be explored in detail In order to make the collection useful to scholars with a wide range of interest it has been divided into three parts Part 1 is a chronological presentation of commentary on German literature in general It also contains collective reviews of multiple German authors notices of important anthologies and reactions to influential works about Germany and its culture Part 2 collects reviews of 18th Century individual German authors and Part 3 is devoted to the English reception of Goethe and Schiller Parts 2 3 contain cross references to the collective reviews of Part 1 Containing over 200 British serials and articles and reviews from all the major English literary periodicals the collection also includes a broad sampling of opinion from the more general magazines including some popular religious publications The Collected Works: 200+ Novels, Plays, Poems, Essays & Autobiography Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 2023-12-09 In The Collected Works 200 Novels Plays Poems Essays Autobiography Johann Wolfgang von Goethe presents an unparalleled tapestry of German literature that showcases his multifaceted genius His oeuvre embodies the convergence of Enlightenment ideals with Romantic sensibilities characterized by a profound exploration of individualism and nature The collection includes seminal works such as Faust which delves into the human condition through a Faustian bargain and his lesser known poetic and autobiographical writings that reveal his philosophical contemplations on life love and art Goethe s lyrical prowess and narrative innovation make this collection an essential study of literary evolution and cultural commentary in Western literature As a pivotal figure of the Sturm und Drang movement and later a key player in the Weimar Classicism literary era Goethe s life experiences greatly informed his writing Born in 1749 in Frankfurt he was a polymath whose pursuits spanned art science and politics His engagement with the contemporary intellectual currents of his time undoubtedly shaped his thematic choices encouraging readers to confront existential dilemmas and embrace the complexities of human experience This comprehensive collection is highly recommended for both scholars and general readers alike as it invites a deep engagement with Goethe s literary artistry and philosophical inquiries Readers will find themselves captivated by the rich emotional depth and intellectual rigor present in these works gaining invaluable insights into the fabric of human existence through Goethe s nuanced lens

Autobiography Rudolf Steiner, 2006-05 4 lectures Dornach June 28 July 18 1923 CW 350 Truth and striving for truth must taste good to you and lies once you are conscious of them must taste bitter and poisonous You must not only know that human judgments have color but also that printer s ink nowadays is mostly deadly nightshade juice You must be able to experience this in all honesty and rectitude and once you can do so you will be in a state of spiritual transformation Rudolf Steiner What is the relationship between coming to see the secrets of the universe and one s own view of the world How far must one go before finding the higher worlds on the path of natural science Do cosmic forces influence all of humanity What connection do plants have with the human being and the human body In answering these questions Steiner covers a wide range of topics from the development of independent thinking and the ability to think backward to the uses of what seems boring and the reversal of thinking between the physical and spiritual worlds and from the physiology of dreams to living into nature and the spiritual dimension of various foods we eat As always in his lectures to the workers Steiner s style is clear direct and accessible This volume is a translation from German of four lectures from Rhythmen im Kosmos und im Menschenwesen Wie kommt man zum Schauen der geistigen Welt GA 350 The Autobiography of Goethe, Books I-XX Johan Wolfgang von Goethe, 2020-07-22 Reproduction of the original The Autobiography of Goethe Books I XX by Johan Wolfgang von Goethe
