Youth And Post Conflict Reconstruction Youth And Post Conflict Reconstruction:

Youth and Post-conflict Reconstruction Stephanie Schwartz,2010 In Youth and Post Conflict Reconstruction Agents of Change Stephanie Schwartz goes beyond these highly publicized cases and examines the roles of the broader youth population in post conflict scenarios taking on the complex task of distinguishing between the legal and societal labels of child youth and adult

Youth and Post-conflict Reconstruction Stephanie Schwartz,2010 A very welcome addition to the literature on youth and violence Schwartz forcefully argues that we need to pay attention to the positive roles that youth may play in post conflict reconstruction Most importantly she identifies and discusses strategies that may contribute to breaking the cycle of violence This book will help change the perception of youth as primarily being a threat to one of youth representing an opportunity Henrik Urdal The International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO

Youth Civic Engagement and Local Peacebuilding in the Middle East and North Africa Ibrahim Natil,2021-05-20 This book investigates the ways in which young people engage with and contribute to civil society community development and local peacebuilding in the Middle East and North Africa MENA Youth engagement and contribution to civil society and local peacebuilding can play a crucial role in development however there is often a lack of effective engagement policies and opportunities for young people in policy and practice This book analyses their experiences of civic engagement and community participation and the challenges they face across diverse areas including youth empowerment freedom of expression mobilization ideologies conflict resolution and peacebuilding Drawing on cases from Yemen Syria Iran Morocco and the Palestinian Territories this book offers new insights on how youth not only are shaped by but also react to policies conflict constraints and challenges The insights drawn from this interdisciplinary collection will be of interest to researchers of civil society youth peacebuilding and development as well as to policymakers donors and NGO staff

Challenges of Post-conflict Reconstruction Eugenia Date-Bah,2008 Discusses the concept of post conflict reconstruction and how to plan and implement it Focuses on job creation including the role of the ILO gender issues diaspora civil society groups and regional bodies Refers to armed conflicts and peace building in countries around the world with particular reference to Ghana

Transitional Justice in Practice Renée Jeffery,2017-01-06 This book examines the practice of transitional justice in the Solomon Islands from the period of the The Tensions to the present In late 1998 the Solomon Islands were plunged into a period of violent civil conflict precipitated by a complex web of grievances injustices ethnic tensions and economic insecurities This conflict dragged on until the middle of 2003 leaving an estimated 200 people dead and more than 20 000 displaced from their homes In the time that has elapsed since the end of The Tensions numerous at times incompatible approaches to transitional justice have been implemented in the Solomon Islands The contributors to this volume examine how key global trends and debates about transitional justice were played out in the Solomon Islands how its key mechanisms were adapted to meet the specific demands of post conflict justice in this local context and how well its practices and processes fulfilled their perceived functions HC 247 - Recovery and Development in Sierra Leone and Liberia Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. International Development Committee, 2014 Sierra Leone and Liberia have made remarkable recoveries since their civil wars Ban Ki Moon was in Freetown this month to bring an end to the UN Security mission and set the UN presence on a conventional development footing from 1st April 2014 In Liberia there has been a gradual drawdown of the peacekeeping mission which will approximately halve the UN military presence by 2015 However both countries remain fragile with high unemployment and concerns about corruption The devastating Ebola outbreak in Sierra Leone and Liberia demonstrates the dangers of ignoring the least developed countries in the world The weak state of the health system in both countries has greatly reduced the effectiveness of the response to Ebola There is an alarming lack of capacity in the health system including a shortage of skilled clinicians The Committee have determined that the scale of the Ebola crisis now unfolding in Sierra Leone and Liberia may well be connected to declining levels of international support for health system improvements in what remain two of the poorest and least developed countries in the world Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army's strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union's 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa's policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment Reshaping the Future, 2005 This publication focuses on the role that education can play both in terms of conflict prevention and in the reconstruction of post conflict societies drawing on research in 52 conflict affected countries and a review of 12 country studies These case studies include Angola Burundi Sierra Leone Bosnia Herzegovina Kosovo Timor Leste Cambodia Lebanon El Salvador and Nicaragua and consideration is given to how lessons drawn might be applied to recent conflict situations in Afghanistan and Iraq Issues discussed include the relationship between conflict poverty and education the challenges of reform and reconstruction teacher training and teaching resources governance and financing the legacy of conflict and the role of the World Bank in supporting education reconstruction Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding and Ethnic Conflict Jessica Senehi, Imani Michelle Scott, Sean Byrne, Thomas G. Matyók, 2022-08-22 This handbook offers a comprehensive analysis of peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts with attention to theory peacebuilder roles making sense of the past and shaping the future as well as case studies and approaches Comprising 28 chapters that present key insights on peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts the volume has implications for teaching and training as well as for practice and policy The handbook is divided into four thematic parts Part 1 focuses on critical dimensions of ethnic conflicts including root causes gender external involvements emancipatory peacebuilding hatred as a public health issue environmental issues American nationalism and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic Part 2 focuses on peacebuilders roles including Indigenous peacemaking nonviolent accompaniment peace leadership in the military interreligious peacebuilders local women and young people Part 3 addresses the past and shaping of the future including a discussion of public memory heritage rights and monuments refugees trauma and memory aggregated trauma in the African American community exhumations after genocide and a healing centered approach to conflict Part 4 presents case studies on Sri Lanka s postwar reconciliation process peacebuilding in Mindanao the transformative peace negotiation in Aceh and Bougainville external economic aid for peacebuilding in Northern Ireland Indigenous and local peacemaking and a continuum of peacebuilding focal points The handbook offers perspectives on the breadth and significance of peacebuilding work in ethnic conflicts throughout the world This volume will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding ethnic conflict security studies and international relations The Case for the

Empowerment of Youth in Post-Conflict Societies Jannike Riesch, 2019-04-05 Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Politics Topic Peace and Conflict Security grade 1.0 Charles University in Prague Political Science course Justice and Reconciliation in Post Conflict Societies language English abstract Within this essay I will answer the question as to why it is important to empower youth in post conflict societies In order to do so I will first engage in the theoretical framework for example the definitions of youth and peacebuilding After that I will make the case in favor of the empowerment of youth by looking at 1 the very nature and characteristics of the social category that is youth and 2 the practical considerations that speak for empowering youth In order to illustrate my argument I will then point out why it is important to focus on youth in the exemplary case of post conflict Bosnia and Herzegovina BiH Lastly in the concluding remarks I will consider what implications the findings might or should have for the future of youth in post conflict societies On the 9th of December 2015 the United Nations Security Council UNSC unanimously adopted a resolution With that the UNSC did not only acknowledge the potential of young people as active and positive contributors to peace and stability it also tried to open up more possibilities in order to further empower youth to take part in the political processes within their respective countries While so far young people have often been marginalized in post conflict settings and their potential to contribute to the creating or maintaining of peace has mostly been overlooked Resolution 2550 sets a new focus and thus seems to mark a shift in the perception of youth Youth s potential in becoming active and positive agents of building peace remains untapped if they are marginalized both in the academic and political context Thus the main aim of this essay is to show why it is of crucial importance to change the perception of youth in post conflict societies and empower them to make a difference
