American Art in Asia Michelle Lim, Kyunghye Pyun, 2022-05-05 This book challenges existing notions of what is American and or Asian art moving beyond the identity issues that have dominated art world conversations of the 1980s and the 1990s and aligning with new trends and issues in contemporary art today e.g. the Global South labor environment and gender identity Contributors examine both historical and contemporary instances in art practices and exhibition making under the rubric of American art in Asia The book complicates existing notions of what constitutes American art Asian American and American Asian art As today's production and display of contemporary art takes place across diffused borders under the fluid conditions of a globalized art world since transformed by the COVID 19 pandemic new contexts and art historical narratives are forming that upend traditional Euro American mappings of center margins migratory patterns and community engagement The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history American studies Asian studies and visual culture

AIPS Book Prize American Institute of Pakistan Studies Finalist 2023 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association From news about World War II to the broadcasting of music from popular movies radio played a crucial role in an increasingly divided South Asia for more than half a century Radio for the Millions examines the history of Hindi Urdu radio during the height of its popularity from the 1930s to the 1980s showing how it created transnational communities of listeners

Isabel Huacuja Alonso argues that despite British Indian and Pakistani politicians efforts to usurp the medium for state purposes radio largely escaped their grasp She demonstrates that the medium enabled listeners and broadcasters to resist the cultural linguistic and political agendas of the British colonial administration and the subsequent independent Indian and Pakistani governments Rather than being merely a tool of nation building in South Asia radio created affective links that defied state agendas policies and borders It forged an enduring transnational soundscape even after the 1947 Partition had made a united India a political impossibility Huacuja Alonso traces how people engaged with radio across news music and drama broadcasts arguing for a more expansive definition of what it means to listen She develops the concept of radio resonance to understand how radio relied on circuits of oral communication such as rumor and gossip and to account for the affective bonds this talk created By analyzing Hindi film song radio programs she demonstrates how radio spurred new ways of listening to cinema Drawing on a rich collection of sources including newly recovered recordings listeners letters to radio stations original interviews with broadcasters and archival documents from across three continents Radio for the Millions rethinks assumptions about how the medium connects with audiences Eurasian Encounters Carolien Stolte, Yoshiyuki Kikuchi, 2025-10-01

The essays in this volume explore crucial intellectual and cultural exchanges between Asia and Europe in the first half of the twentieth century Examining the increased mobility of people and information scientific advances global crises and the unravelling of empires Eurasian Encounters demonstrates that this time period saw an unprecedented increase in a transnational flow of politically and socially influential ideas Together the contributors show how the two ends of Eurasia interacted in artistic academic and religious spheres using new international and cosmopolitan approaches
