The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover

The Social History of the American Family Marilyn J. Coleman, Lawrence H. Ganong, 2014-09-02 The American family has come a long way from the days of the idealized family portrayed in iconic television shows of the 1950s and 1960s The four volumes of The Social History of the American Family explore the vital role of the family as the fundamental social unit across the span of American history Experiences of family life shape so much of an individual's development and identity yet the patterns of family structure family life and family transition vary across time space and socioeconomic contexts Both the definition of who or what counts as family and representations of the ideal family have changed over time to reflect changing mores changing living standards and lifestyles and increased levels of social heterogeneity Available in both digital and print formats this carefully balanced academic work chronicles the social cultural economic and political aspects of American families from the colonial period to the present Key themes include families and culture including mass media families and religion families and the economy families and social issues families and social stratification and conflict family structures including marriage and divorce gender roles parenting and children and mixed and non modal family forms and family law and policy Features Approximately 600 articles richly illustrated with historical photographs and color photos in the digital edition provide historical context for students A collection of primary source documents demonstrate themes across time The signed articles with cross references and Further Readings are accompanied by a Reader s Guide Chronology of American Families Resource Guide Glossary and thorough index The Social History of the American Family is an ideal reference for students and researchers who want to explore political and social debates about the importance of the family and its evolving constructions Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi,Ralph J.

Fletcher,2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative fiction or even poetry but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay they often feel anxious and frustrated JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion keen interest and wonder Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in his challenging genre Like the authors best selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8 this book is divided into sections for K 2 3 4 and middle school grades 5 8 students These divisions reflect various differences between emerging competent and fluent writers In each section you ll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that s most appropriate for that particular age In the K 2 section for example a number of craft lessons focus on the all about or concept book In the 3 4 section there are several lessons on biography In the 5 8 section a series of lessons addresses expository writing Throughout the book each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy to read format Every lesson features three teaching guidelines Discussion A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context How to Teach It Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting Resource Material Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer more authoritative and more organized Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano,2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials
