Transactions of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society John S. Harris,2018-12 Excerpt from Transactions of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society Proceedings Essays and Reports at the Annual Winter Meeting Held at Minneapolis January 20 23 1874 and Correspondence and Reports Upon the Effects of the Winter of 1872 3 on Fruit Trees in Minnesota Of the value of this volume it may not be proper for me to speak It speaks for itself to tell you that the society is steadily growing in numbers in uence and power for good This volume Contains a number of addresses and essays of great value and the correspondence and reports are in my Opinion one of its best features The lists of fruits adopted for cultivation are very complete and fully equal quality and hardiness to rule to the lists recommended by our neighbors of the Wisconsin Society The last 1872 and 73 winter had severely tried many varieties of fruit and we expected that many of our friends would be discouraged and inclined to raise the Old cry of no fruit country but were happily disappointed as the contents of this volume will show It will be noticed that the men who have taken part in the discussions and contributed papers are with few exceptions the pioneers of fruit growing in this State and many of them have had large experience in testing varieties in various localities About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Transactions of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society.
