Trauma Informed Behavioral Interventions What Works And What Doesn't:

Trauma-informed Behavioral Interventions Karyn Harvey, 2012 In this book the author describes what doesn't work by outlining the ways in which individuals with intellectual disability may have been damaged by the behavioral approach to their day to day actions She demonstrates what has been missed through this approach Needs have not been met individuals have been misdiagnosed and trauma responses have been triggered through the exclusive use of behavioral controls both positive and negative The author then moves on to describe what works She explores the topics of stabilization prevention intervention and the mental health plan She proposes a model of behavioral intervention that does not require the use of restraints or contingencies instead it promotes safety and security and addresses the outstanding issues around trauma Numerous case studies are discussed but all the names and relevant details have been altered to protect individuals staff and agencies The mental health plan template the author puts forward instructs and informs staff about how to support people who have experienced trauma both on a small scale and on a large one She provides examples of this approach with case studies and illustrates how the plans should be written to ensure optimal implementation This book gives the professionals and paraprofessionals who have dedicated themselves to this field and to the welfare of individuals with intellectual disability a trauma informed paradigm within which to support people with intellectual disability psychologically and to establish the critical elements needed for recovery As the author states in her introduction when the individual recovers behaviors change When the individual recovers happiness can begin

Belonging and

Resilience in Individuals with Developmental Disabilities Jennifer L. Jones, Kami L. Gallus, 2021-11-27 This book examines belonging as a key protective factor for enhancing resilience for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. It focuses on understanding intellectual and developmental disabilities and resilience from systemic and social ecological perspectives, emphasizing the roles of professionals, families, and communities in combating long-standing segregation and health disparities experienced by individuals and families. The volume explores the dimensions of belonging across diverse professional fields using a person-centered approach that acknowledges the significant lifelong role of family members and emphasizes reflective practice for professionals. Chapters present research and innovative strategies to facilitate belonging when working alongside individuals and families. Key areas of coverage include Family professional partnerships in working with individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities across lifespan and community contexts, Spirituality, mental health, and identity in persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities, Research ethics and design in working with individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, The diverse needs, desires, and preferences of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, The importance of individualized planning and approaches in fostering belonging for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, Belonging and Resilience in Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is a valuable resource for researchers, professors, and graduate students as well as clinicians, therapists, and related professionals in developmental psychology, family studies, public health, and social work, as well as related disciplines including education policy and politics, behavioral health, and psychiatry.

Case Management from an Empowerment Perspective, Fourth Edition Patricia Spindel, 2020-12-29 Written for case managers working in health and human services, this practical guide addresses the need for more progressive and compassionate ways of working with others. Introducing innovative strategies for working with people that challenge the status quo, the book reconsiders old forms of social casework in favour of empowerment approaches that incorporate individual systemic advocacy. Patricia Spindel covers the history of case management, traditional approaches, and their critiques; barriers to an empowerment approach; the ethical issues of labelling, stereotyping, stigmatization, and pathologizing; and key empowerment philosophies and the research that supports them. This guide provides concrete methods that will help readers put principles of empowerment philosophy into practice. With practical case studies and questions for reflection featured throughout the chapters, it is well suited for human services, social services, and social work programs in colleges and universities in Canada. FEATURES Offers a practical how-to for developing an empowerment plan and deals with common issues in practice such as projection, countertransference, and transference. Includes core concepts of empowerment and methodology for building individual and community capacity and competence. Provides students with case studies from the field and questions to encourage reflection. Autism Missed and Misdiagnosed Judy Eaton, 2023-11-21 Autism presents in a multitude of different and highly nuanced ways, particularly as it intersects with variance in class, gender, race, and age Misunderstanding and misinformation around variant and differing presentations means that misdiagnosed individuals and those who do not receive a diagnosis at all are often failed by medical education social care and criminal justice systems They are detained in inappropriate settings don t receive beneficial therapeutic input have their families accused of fabricated or induced illness FII are kept in prison or youth offending institutions longer than their original tariffs and shockingly their life expectancy is often curtailed as a result This comprehensive resource will help multidisciplinary professions to understand contextualise and better identify diverse autistic presentations It includes an overview of the autism diagnostic process an exploration of controversial and commonly confused diagnoses such as PDA ODD CD ASPD and BPD discussions of best practice for investigating FII and analysis of the specific challenges of autism diagnosis in relation to women and girls BAME communities schools and the criminal justice system Emergency Psychiatry Tony Thrasher,2023 An excellent introduction to the field of emergency mental health issues with a focus on the best approaches and diagnoses one is most likely to encounter in the field This primer is a phenomenal resource for a myriad of healthcare professionals from the seasoned clinician to medical student looking to better prepare for a clinical rotation or internship

Trauma-Informed Practices for the Classroom and Beyond Laura B. Waller,William N. Bender,2024-05-31 Find the right strategies and tools to support students who experience trauma Written by experts with years of experience working with children and teens exposed to adverse childhood experiences ACEs Trauma Informed Practices for the Classroom and Beyond describes the most effective tools available and walks you through how to implement them with compassion and fidelity Breakthrough Leadership Alan M. Blankstein,Marcus J. Newsome,2020-08-25 Now is the time for Breakthrough Leadership This book was borne out of urgency We face the consequences of a raging pandemic coupled with an unprecedented call to end racial injustice COVID 19 has exposed longstanding structural inequities while at the same time offering a rare breakthrough opportunity to dismantle inequitable systems that have harmed our most marginalized students for generations Breakthrough Leadership is rooted in moral courage and calls us to act upon a new discovery or epiphany about a fundamental truth that challenges previous beliefs While this book offers examples of schools that were beating the odds pre COVID 19 as well as strategies for changing those odds in the future Breakthrough Leadership also spotlights professionals now leveraging crises like this to shape local and national priorities toward a more equitable and healthy society for our children in order to Create and sustain Equitable Learning Communities ELCs that are grounded in relational trust Establish comprehensive systems to ensure that all students thrive Implement cutting edge principles of effective curriculum instruction and assessment including culturally responsive teaching trauma informed practice and blended learning Meaningfully engage families and community Leadership from the classroom to the board room is needed to advance an agenda of equitable and successful outcomes for our students The facts stakes couldn t be starker Good leadership saves lives both in pandemics and in our profession The critical variable that determines whether or not our schools can respond adequately to the numerous challenges that they and their children face is leadership This book is about the work of such leaders In big cities small towns and rural areas a small number of principals and superintendents are showing that progress can be made when leaders have the resourcefulness and courage to address equity challenges directly The educational leaders profiled in this book have a clear sense of how to systematically build the capacity of teachers and schools to meet the needs of the students they serve I urge other leaders to learn from them so that great schools that serve all children well will be the norm rather than the exception Pedro Noguera With all its devastation COVID 19 also presents the opportunity of the century to transform the public education system that to say the least has become stalled and stagnant in the past 50 years Breakthrough Leadership makes a significant contribution to our next phase which must be one of definable and targeted transformation of equity based learning Michael Fullan
