Vilnius City Of Strangers:

Vilnius Laimonas Briedis, 2009 Presents the history of the capital city of Lithuania from its 14th century legendary beginnings up to 2009 when Vilnius bears the distinction of European Capital of Culture This book features quotes from travellers who passed through the city during their own life journeys History and Politics Adam Jarosz, Ralph Schattkowsky, 2018-04-18 History and politics are interlinked with unbreakable bonds as is manifested primarily in the use of historical arguments in political disputes Regardless of the ideological views represented time period and geographical location politicians consistently and frequently use such arguments with a high degree of effectiveness Driven by a variety of motives they use the category of the past re interpret it and decide what should be remembered and what should be removed from the so called collective memory In practice this means that a properly prepared and delivered narrative of the past can become a powerful instrument in the hands of the ruling class influencing the social and political reality of the country concerned Control of the past and its correct reconstruction can thus effectively contribute to gaining boosting and consolidating power by a political entity An appropriately shaped awareness of the past thus serves an only ancillary role to politics satisfying social expectations and ideological visions Thus the past or rather the memory of it when becoming a topic of interest in the domain of politics forces the creators of the politics of history to improve the tools and mechanisms they wield to ensure its more efficient use The Making and Breaking of Soviet Lithuania Violeta Davoliūtė, 2014-01-03 Appearing on the world stage in 1918 Lithuania suffered numerous invasions border changes and large scale population displacements The successive occupations of Stalin in 1940 and Hitler in 1941 mass deportations to the Gulag and the elimination of the Jewish community in the Holocaust gave the horrors of World War II a special ferocity Moreover the fighting continued after 1945 with the anti Soviet insurrection crushed through mass deportations and forced collectivization in 1948 1951 At no point however did the process of national consolidation take a pause making Lithuania an improbably representative case study of successful nation building in this troubled region As postwar reconstruction gained pace ethnic Lithuanians from the countryside the only community to remain after the war in significant numbers were mobilized to work in the cities They streamed into factory and university alike creating a modern urban society with new elites who had a surprising degree of freedom to promote national culture This book describes how the national cultural elites constructed a Soviet Lithuanian identity against a backdrop of forced modernization in the fifties and sixties and how they subsequently took it apart by evoking the memory of traumatic displacement in the seventies and eighties later emerging as prominent leaders of the popular movement against Soviet rule The Genius Eliyahu Stern, 2013-01-08 DIV Elijah ben Solomon the Genius of Vilna was perhaps the best known and most understudied figure in modern Jewish history This book offers a new narrative of Jewish modernity based on Elijah s life and influence While the experience of Jews in modernity has often been described as a process of Western European secularization with Jews becoming citizens of Western nation states congregants of reformed synagogues and assimilated members of society Stern uses Elijah's story to highlight a different theory of modernization for European life Religious movements such as Hasidism and anti secular institutions such as the yeshiva emerged from the same democratization of knowledge and privatization of religion that gave rise to secular and universal movements and institutions Claimed by traditionalists enlighteners Zionists and the Orthodox Elijah's genius and its afterlife capture an all embracing interpretation of the modern Jewish experience Through the story of the Vilna Gaon Stern presents a new model for understanding modern Jewish history and more generally the place of traditionalism and religious radicalism in modern Western life and thought div

Belarus Andrew Wilson, 2021-03-09 A comprehensive and revelatory history of modern Belarus from independence to 2020's contested election In 2020 Belarus made headlines around the world when protests erupted in the aftermath of a fraught presidential election Andrew Wilson explores both Belarus's complicated road to nationhood and its politics and economics since it gained independence in 1991 Two new chapters reveal the extent of Aliaksandr Lukashenka's grip on power the growth of the opposition movement and the violent crackdown that followed the vote Wilson also examines the prospects for Europe as a whole of either Lukashenka's downfall or his survival with Russian support Andrew Wilson has done all students of European politics a great service by making the history of Belarus comprehensible and by showing how the future of Belarus might be different than its present Timothy Snyder author of Bloodlands Europe Between Hitler and Stalin

Ragaišienė, Adelheid Rundholz, 2023-10-09 This book illustrates that the idea of a national literature is profoundly problematic Chapters on boundaries and crisscrossing show how a nation and its writers works do not exist in isolation from their history Stressing migration and inter cultural dialogue authors explore how the characters in the texts establish a sense of belonging both within the context of migrations and within the context of Lithuania since its independence The final series of essays in this book discusses Lithuanian literature abroad that is in translation Re-Visioning Europe U. Kockel, 2010-07-28

Drawing on ethno anthropological fieldwork this book considers issues of identity and belonging in Europe from a consciously emic perspective The book explores issues such as borders migration economic organization heritage and the politics and practice of developing cultural understanding The Cold War Jeremy Black, 2015-10-29 The term the Cold War has had many meanings and interpretations since it was originally coined and has been used to analyse everything from comics to pro natalist policies and science fiction to gender politics This range has great value but also poses problems notably by diluting the focus on war of a certain type and by exacerbating a lack of precision in definition and analysis The Cold War A Military History is the first survey of the period to focus on the diplomatic and military confrontation and conflict Jeremy Black begins his overview in 1917 and covers the long Cold War from the 7th November Revolution to the ongoing repercussions and reverberations of the conflict today The book is forward looking as well as retrospective not least in encouraging us to reflect on how much the character of the present world owes to the Cold War The result is a detailed survey that will be invaluable to students and scholars of military and international history Baltic Facades Aldis

Purs, 2013-02-15 Estonia Latvia and Lithuania are often grouped together as the Baltic States but these three Eastern European countries tied together historically are quite different Although each is struggling to find its place within Europe and fighting to preserve its own identity the idea of the Baltic States is a fa ade In this book Aldis Purs dispels the myth of a single coherent Baltic identity presenting a radical new view of the region Baltic Fa ades illuminates the uniqueness of these three countries and locates them within the larger context of European history also revealing the similarities they share with the rest of the continent He also examines the anxiety the people of Estonia Latvia and Lithuania feel about their own identities and how others see them Giving equal weight to developments in politics economics and social and cultural trends he places contemporary events in a longer perspective than traditional Cold War inspired views of the region tracing the countries under Soviet rule after the end of World War II through their declarations of independence in the early 1990s and their admission to the European Union in 2004 Baltic Fa ades is an enlightening look at these three separate though related Eastern European countries

Re-contextualising East Central European History Robert Pyrah, 2017-12-02 Twenty years after the fall of Communism scholarship on East Central Europe has adopted mainstream western methodologies but remains preoccupied with a narrow range of themes Nationalism identity fin de siecle art and culture and revisionist historiography dominate the field to the detriment of other subjects Using a variety of lenses literary political linguistic medical the authors address a conspectus of original themes including Jewish literary life in interwar Romania the Galician Alphabet War and Saxon eugenics in Transylvania These case studies transcend their East Central European context by engaging with conceptually broad questions This volume additionally contains a comprehensive Introduction and topical Bibliography of use to students and teachers resulting in one of the most creative collections of studies dealing with East Central Europe to date This volume has its roots in an interdisciplinary seminar at the University of Oxford bringing together emerging and established scholars with the explicit aim of broadening the study of this region its history and culture beyond the established paradigms Robert Pyrah is a Research Fellow at St Antony s College and an authority on theatre and cultural politics in Austria and post Habsburg central Europe Marius Turda is founder of the International Working Group on the History of Race and Eugenics based at Oxford Brookes University

Urban Change in Central Europe Jacek Purchla, 2022-10-10 The changes that Central European cities have undergone since 1989 deserve a complex interdisciplinary analysis that offers deep insight into the specific nature of the transformation taking place in the region This book presents a multidimensional and cross disciplinary case study of Krak w focusing on the changes taking place in Central Europe over the last three decades This book answers the question of how the once neglected city of Krak w has transformed into a thriving global tourist destination an attractive investment market and a European leader of shared services It examines political socio economic cultural and architectural development of the city against the ongoing processes of post 1989 political and economic transition European integration and globalisation The authors offer a portrait of the evolution in thinking about the developmental resources of the city accounting for what is broadly construed as culture and heritage Whereas previous studies have offered only one dimensional insights into these phenomena this book highlights the specific characteristics of the transition and identifies the challenges typical of many cities in Czechia Slovakia Poland and Hungary after the fall of communism This book will be valuable reading for academics researchers and postgraduate and PhD students of economic geography urban studies public management political studies sociology culture and heritage management and modern history as well as those with an interest in Central European and transformation issues
