Visuality And Identity Sinophone Articulations Across The Pacific:

Visuality and Identity Shumei Shi, 2007-06-19 A vanguard excursion into sophisticated cultural criticism situated at the intersections of Chinese studies Asian American studies diaspora studies transnational studies this text argues that the visual has become the primary means of mediating identities under global capitalism Visuality and Identity Shu-mei

Shih, 2007-06-19 Shu mei Shih inaugurates the field of Sinophone studies in this vanguard excursion into sophisticated cultural criticism situated at the intersections of Chinese studies Asian American studies diaspora studies and transnational studies Arguing that the visual has become the primary means of mediating identities under global capitalism Shih examines the production and circulation of images across what she terms the Sinophone Pacific which comprises Sinitic language speaking communities such as the People's Republic of China Taiwan Hong Kong and Chinese America This groundbreaking work argues that the dispersal of the so called Chinese peoples across the world needs to be reconceptualized in terms of vibrant or vanishing communities of Sinitic language cultures rather than of ethnicity and nationality Sinophone

Studies Shu-mei Shih, 2013-01-15 This definitive anthology casts Sinophone studies as the study of Sinitic language cultures born of colonial and postcolonial influences Essays by such authors as Rey Chow Ha Jin Leo Ou fan Lee Ien Ang Wei ming Tu and David Wang address debates concerning the nature of Chineseness while introducing readers to essential readings in Tibetan Malaysian Taiwanese French Caribbean and American Sinophone literatures By placing Sinophone cultures at the crossroads of multiple empires this anthology richly demonstrates the transformative power of multiculturalism and multilingualism and by examining the place based cultural and social practices of Sinitic language communities in their historical contexts beyond China proper it effectively refutes the diasporic framework It is an invaluable companion for courses in Asian postcolonial empire and ethnic studies as well as world and comparative literature Queer Sinophone

Cultures Howard Chiang, Ari Larissa Heinrich, 2013-11-26 The Sinophone framework emphasises the diversity of Chinese speaking communities and cultures and seeks to move beyond a binary model of China and the West Indeed this strikingly resembles attempts within the queer studies movement to challenge the dimorphisms of sex and gender Bringing together two areas of study that tend to be marginalised within their home disciplines Queer Sinophone Cultures innovatively advances both Sinophone studies and queer studies It not only examines film and literature from Mainland China but expands its scope to encompass the underrepresented Sinophone world at large in this case Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and beyond Further where queer studies in the U S Europe and Australia often ignore non Western cultural phenomena this book focuses squarely on Sinophone queerness providing fresh critical analyses of a range of topics from works by the famous director Tsai Ming Liang to the history of same sex soft core pornography made by the renowned Shaw Brothers Studios By instigating a dialogue between Sinophone studies and queer studies this book will have broad appeal to students and scholars of modern and contemporary China studies particularly to those interested in film literature media and performance It will also be of great interest to those interested in queer studies more broadly

Exploring Sinophone Liminality in Contemporary Chinese Fiction Di-kai Chao, 2025-05-13 Chao explores Sinophone literature as a complex field that navigates the intersections of Sinitic languages global literary systems and China centered perspectives He presents an alternative perspective that Sinophone literature especially through ghost narratives offers a platform for communities to critically examine modernity transgress boundaries and challenge epistemologies By emphasizing locality this book critiques the homogenization of knowledge production and highlights the importance of local experiences in shaping Sinophone identity Questioning the linear essentialist interpretations of Chineseness a more fluid understanding influenced by cultural memory globalization and transnational dynamics emerges This book advocates for an expanded scope of Sinophone theory that includes the Chinese mainland moving beyond an against diaspora stance Building upon postcolonialism and historical contexts it examines literary texts and ghost narratives originating from Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia and the Chinese mainland delving into the diversity of Sinophone literature An excellent read for students researchers and scholars interested in Chinese literature cultural studies and critical literary work with a focus on Asian studies

Sinoglossia Andrea Bachner, Howard Chiang, Yu-lin Lee, 2023-10-12 Sinoglossia places the terms of embodiment mediality and translation at the center of analytical inquiry into Chinese and Sinophone cultures Converging in the rubric of Sinoglossia the chapters in this volume introduce a theory defined by cultural formations not overdetermined by Sinitic linguistic ties The concept of Sinoglossia combines a heteroglossic and a heterotopian approach to the critical study of mediated discourses of China and Chineseness From the history of physical examinations and queer subalternity to the cinematic inscription of Chineseness as landscape and from Sinopop to the translational writings of Eileen Chang and Syaman Rapongan this book argues for a flexible conceptualization of cultural objects conditions and contexts that draws attention to an array of polyphonic multi discursive and multilingual articulations In this new horizon of understanding place or topos necessarily constitutes the possibility of friction and source of innovation Sinoglossia opens new possibilities for critical studies of China Chineseness and Chinese cultures Bringing together pathbreaking scholarship from diverse perspectives and highlighting multiplicity and heterogeneity on a range of topics this volume is a vital addition to a range of fields Karen L Thornber Harvard University Vitality centering and theorizing processes of embodiment mediality and translation this timely and rich volume simultaneously reflective speculative comparative and historically informed convincingly articulates Sinoglossia as a flexible heterogeneous approach to intercultural phenomena tenuously identified as Chinese or Sinophone Brian Bernards University of Southern California

Worlding Multiculturalisms Daniel P. S. Goh, 2014-11-20 Worlding multiculturalisms are practices that infuse our arbitrary cultural lives with new things from other cultures in poetic ways to enable us to dwell and be at home with the complexity of the world In the context of the crisis of multiculturalism in the West and the growing obsolescence of state based multiculturalism in the postcolonial world this book offers examples of new practices of worlding multiculturalisms that go beyond issues of immigration integration and identity. Contrasting Western and Asian notions of multiculturalism, this book does not focus on state issues but rather highlights manifestations of cultural exchange. The chapters draw on cultural studies approaches to document instances of worlding multiculturalisms that bring Asian cultures into conflict, dialogue and settlement with each other. Instances include an Asian American return novel set in Penang, the cultural productions and street performances of democracy marches in Malaysia, the campaigns to reclaim public spaces and citizenship rights by migrant domestic workers in Hong Kong, the imaginary vistas opened up by Japanese popular culture consumed throughout Asia, the localisations of casino complexes in Macau and a shopping mall in Seoul and an old municipal cemetery being defended from urban redevelopment in Singapore. Rather than merely globalizing forms of political diversity, these are instances with the potential to transform social relations and the very terms of cultural exchange. Worlding Multiculturalisms offers a truly interdisciplinary examination of multiculturalism in action. As such, it will appeal to students and scholars of cultural studies, Asian studies, Asian culture and society, cultural anthropology and sociology, and political sociology.

Migration and Identity in British East and Southeast Asian Cinema
Wing-Fai Leung, 2023-05-31. An emerging interest in a British East and Southeast Asian identity after decades of political and social exclusion has coincided with periods of economic and political challenges in the UK. In Migration and Identity in British East and Southeast Asian Cinema, Leung Wing Fai argues that this explosive context has created rich and diverse forms of storytelling and an accented cinematic language. By offering close readings of key contemporary films and positioning them in a wider slate of releases by British East and Southeast Asian filmmakers alongside Anglophone film histories in the Global North, this book sheds light on a developing field and engenders new ways of understanding British cinema and society. The author explores changing representational politics in contemporary cinema and argues for the cinematic visibility of a hitherto silenced community. Drawing on theoretical frames from sociological film and cultural studies to critically engage with the textual and visual language of the case studies, Leung claims the place of British East and Southeast Asian Cinema as a film and cultural movement. Highlighting diversity among the British East and Southeast Asian community, pushing boundaries in its intersectional approach to ethnicity, race, gender and sexuality, and proposing a critical framework for academic studies on diasporic film making in the UK, this nuanced and innovative study will interest researchers, teachers and students in a range of Humanities and Liberal Arts subjects including Film and Media Studies, Regional Area Studies, Asia and arts, cultural and creative productions from the East and Southeast Asian diaspora.

Embodied Entanglements: Gender, Identity, and the Corporeal in Asia Zawiszová, Halina, Strafella, Giorgio, Lavička, Martin. Ideas on the human body, gender and identity lie at the core of many socio-political issues and cultural trends in Asia today while also inspiring innovative research on artistic expression from Asia's past. By focusing on socio-political as well as cultural issues from diverse geographical and historical contexts, this book highlights complex links and interactions that bind these three interpretative axes How do bodies become conduits for the expression and negotiation of gender and other identities What do the lived experiences of women and LGBTQ people in Asia reveal about biopolitics normative expectations and value systems in different societies How does art reflect the representation and fashioning of gendered bodies and ambiguous identities Cutting across the quotidian and the avant garde activism and art violence and pleasure as well as the intimate and the political this book sheds new light on Asian cultures and societies spanning India Indonesia Japan mainland China Taiwan and Thailand affirming thus the region's significance in broader debates on biopolitics gender and human dignity The Worlding Project Christopher Leigh Connery, Rob Wilson, 2007-10-30 Globalization discourse now presumes that the world space is entirely at the mercy of market norms and forms promulgated by reactionary U S policies An academic but accessible set of studies this wide range of essays by noted scholars challenges this paradigm with diverse and strong arguments Taking on topics that range from the medieval Mediterranean to contemporary Jamaican music from Hong Kong martial arts cinema to Taiwanese politics writers such as David Palumbo Liu Meaghan Morris James Clifford and others use innovative cultural studies to challenge the globalization narrative with a new and trenchant tactic called worlding The book posits that world literature cultural studies and disciplinary practices must be worlded into expressions from disparate critical angles of vision multiple frameworks and field practices as yet emerging or unidentified This opens up a major rethinking of historical givens from Rob Wilson's reinvention of The White Surfer Dude to Sharon Kinoshita's Deprovincializing the Middle Ages Building on the work of cultural critics like Edward Said Gayatri Spivak and Kenneth Burke The Worlding Project is an important manifesto that aims to redefine the aesthetics and politics of postcolonial globalization with alternative forms and frames of global becoming

Contesting Chineseness Chang-Yau Hoon, Ying-kit Chan, 2021-03-15 Combining a historical approach of Chineseness and a contemporary perspective on the social construction of Chineseness this book provides comparative insights to understand the contingent complexities of ethnic and social formations in both China and among the Chinese diaspora in Southeast Asia This book focuses on the experiences and practices of these people who as mobile agents are free to embrace or reject being defined as Chinese by moving across borders and reinterpreting their own histories By historicizing the notion of Chineseness at local regional and global levels the book examines intersections of authenticity authority culture identity media power and international relations that support or undermine different instances of Chineseness and its representations It seeks to rescue the present from the past by presenting case studies of contingent encounters that produce the ideas practices and identities that become the categories nations need to justify their existence The dynamic fluid representations of Chineseness illustrate that it has never been an undifferentiated whole in both space and time Through physical movements and inherited knowledge agents of Chineseness have deployed various interpretive strategies to define and represent themselves vis vis the local regional and global in their respective temporal experiences This book will be relevant to students and scholars in Chinese studies and

Asian studies more broadly with a focus on identity politics migration popular culture and international relations The Chinese overseas often saw themselves as caught between a rock and a hard place The collection of essays here highlights the variety of experiences in Southeast Asia and China that suggest that the rock can become a huge boulder with sharp edges and the hard places can have deadly spikes A must read for those who wonder whether Chineseness has ever been what it seems Wang Gungwu University Professor National University of Singapore By including reflections on constructions of Chineseness in both China itself and in various Southeast Asian sites the book shows that being Chinese is by no means necessarily intertwined with China as a geopolitical concept while at the same time highlighting the incongruities and tensions in the escapable relationship with China that diasporic Chinese subjects variously embody expressed in a wide range of social phenomena such as language use popular culture architecture and family relations The book is a very welcome addition to the necessary ongoing conversation on Chineseness in the 21st century Ien Ang Distinguished Professor of Cultural Studies Western Sydney University

The Hangover After the Handover Hellena Wu, 2020 As a former British colony 1842 1997 and then a Special Administrative Region from 1997 onwards practicing the One Country Two Systems policy with the People's Republic of China Hong Kong has witnessed at all times how relations are formed dissolved and refashioned amidst changing powers identities and narratives given that the decisions that had moved the city in the past were not made upon the consensus of the local population In its post handover post hangover years the 2014 Umbrella Movement and the 2019 Anti Extradition Bill Protests among other events have revealed the multiple appearances and connotations of Hong Kong's local At the intersections between real life events cultural production and consumption the book is an interdisciplinary study that extracts and examines local relations through the lens of the things and places that stand or that have once stood for Hong Kong's local With cultural icons as an agency the book offers lessons to learn from the city by opening up manifold postcolonial perspectives to confront and interrogate the volatile experiences in the new millennia unprecedented since the Cold War era shared by Hong Kong and other regions After all what does it mean or take to live in the contemporary world when the local global and national are constantly given new meanings

Verbal-Visual Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange
