Young People Speak Surviving The Holocaust In Hungary:

Young People Speak Andrew Handler, Susan V. Meschel, 1993 Eleven survivors of the Holocaust in Hungary recollect their childhood experiences during the implementation of Hitler's Final Solution

Children Who Survived the Final Solution Twenty-Six Survivors, 2004-04-08 Holocaust survivors who were children during the Nazi persecution wrote this collection of memoirs Each story bubbled up spontaneously without an interviewer's guidance hence these represent the most permanent memories of their authors childhood experiences This book provides a rare vantage point to look into the diverse lives of children during the Holocaust Both professionals and adult survivors have often said The children were too young to remember They could not have been more wrong about that I was struck by the fact that the stories were not bitter they did not seek revenge I found the underlying thread in the purpose of the stories to be gifts to the world given in the hope that the stories and the anthology would contribute to other children not having to suffer such events in the future Paul Valent M D Melbourne Australia author Child Survivors of the Holocaust 1994 2002

Holocaust Persecution Wendy Koenig, Nancy Rupprecht, Nancy E. Rupprecht, 2020-06-01 This anthology of selected thematic articles is a unique approach to Holocaust Studies because it focuses on the responses to and consequences of Holocaust persecution rather than on the fact of it After a brief overview of the Holocaust itself the book is divided into two sections Responses to Holocaust Persecution and Consequences of Holocaust Persecution Each section of the book begins with a scholarly essay by an internationally recognized scholar Robert Satloff Executive Director of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy and author of Among the Righteous Lost Stories of the Holocaust's Long Reach Into Arab Lands contributes a scholarly essay to the Responses section of this volume called Countering Holocaust Denial in the Middle East A New Approach Satloff maintains that Holocaust denial in Arab regions may be more effectively countered if recognition is given to Arabs who helped Jews during the Holocaust and if the fate of Jews in Arab lands particularly during World War II is given a more thorough consideration Two additional essays in this segment of the book focus on Arab or Muslim reactions to the Holocaust In addition the Responses section includes articles concerning both collaboration with the German occupiers and Jewish rescue of Jewish victims as well as essays that discuss political and personal responses to Nazi persecution Gerhard L Weinberg author of the magnum opus A World at Arms A Global History of World War II is generally considered to be the world's most important authority on the Second World War He contributes the primary article in the Consequences section of this volume The Holocaust and the Nuremberg Trials His essay argues that the evidence presented at the Nuremberg tribunal as well as the legal principles established at Nuremberg have set important precedents in international law that also influence the course of contemporary politics as well as both Holocaust and genocide studies Subsequent articles in this section of the book discuss the legal personal moral and political consequences of the Holocaust
