Troubles Philippe Azoury:

Brutal Intimacy Tim Palmer, 2011-07-21 Brutal Intimacy is the first book to explore the fascinating films of contemporary France ranging from mainstream genre spectacles to arthouse experiments and from wildly popular hits to films that deliberately alienate the viewer. Twenty first century France is a major source of international cinema, diverse and dynamic, embattled yet prosperous, a national cinema offering something for everyone. Tim Palmer investigates France's growing population of women filmmakers, its buoyant vanguard of first time filmmakers, the rise of the controversial cinéma du corps and France's cinema icons, auteurs like Olivier Assayas, Claire Denis, Bruno Dumont, Gaspar Noé and stars such as Vincent Cassel and Jean Dujardin. Analyzing dozens of breakthrough films, Brutal Intimacy situates infamous titles alongside many yet to be studied in the English language. Drawing on interviews and the testimony of leading film artists, Brutal Intimacy promises to be an influential treatment of French cinema today, its evolving rivalry with Hollywood and its ambitious pursuits of audiences in Europe, North America and around the world.

The Legacy of the New Wave in French Cinema Douglas Morrey, 2019-09-05 In this study of the impact and influence of the New Wave in French cinema, Douglas Morrey looks at both the subsequent careers of New Wave filmmakers and the work of later film directors and film movements in France. This book is organized around a series of key moments from the past 50 years of French cinema in order to show how the meaning and legacy of the New Wave have shifted over time and how the priorities, approaches and discourses of filmmakers and film critics have changed over the years. Morrey tackles key concepts such as the auteur, the relationship of form and content, gender and sexuality, intertextuality and rhythm. Filmmakers discussed include Godard, Truffaut, Varda, Chabrol and Rohmer, plus Philippe Garrel, Luc Besson, Leos Carax, Bruno Dumont, the Dardenne brothers, Christophe Honoré, François Ozon and Jacques Audiard.

A Companion to Literature and Film Robert Stam, Alessandra Raengo, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Literature in Film provides state of the art research on world literature, film and the complex theoretical relationship between them. 25 essays by international experts cover the most important topics in the study of literature and film adaptations. Covers a wide variety of topics including cultural, thematic, theoretical and genre issues. Discusses film adaptations from the birth of cinema to the present day. Explores a diverse range of titles and genres including film noir, biblical epics and Italian and Chinese cinema.

Sapphism on Screen Lucille Cairns, 2006-03-30 This book sets out to investigate and theorise mediations of lesbian desire in a substantial corpus of films spanning the period 1936-2002 by male and female directors working in France and also in French speaking parts of Belgium, Canada, Switzerland and Africa. The corpus is unique in never before having been assembled and represents a valuable tool not just for researchers but also for university teachers creating courses both on lesbianism in film and on sexuality in French cinema. A fair number of the 89 texts treated are mainstream films which have achieved high critical acclaim and/or high viewing figures. To cite just a few examples: Henri-Georges Clouzot's Quai des Orfèvres 1947, Louis Malle's Milou en mai 1989, Claude Chabrol's La Cérémonie 1995, André Techine's Les Voleurs

1995 and Francois Ozon's Huit femmes 2001 As such they have contributed to hegemonic constructions of and debate on female homosexuality in a century wherein sexed gendered identity including sexual orientation has become a preeminent factor in the constitution of subjectivity While such constructions and debate have a French language specificity and have been produced in distinct socio political and cultural contexts this study also engages in analytical comparisons with relevant anglophone films and their own distinct discursive contexts

Performing Ethics Through Film Style Lamberti Edward Lamberti, 2019-11-06 Emmanuel Levinas's ethical philosophy has had a significant influence on film theory in recent years Proposing a relationship between Levinasian ethics and film style and bringing it into a productive dialogue with theories of performativity this book explores this influence through three directorial bodies of work those of the Dardenne Brothers Barbet Schroeder and Paul Schrader Discussing a range of films including the Dardennes Le Fils and The Kid with a Bike Schroeder's Matresse and Reversal of Fortune and Schrader's American Gigolo and The Comfort of Strangers Edward Lamberti demonstrates how film styles can perform a Levinasian ethics

François Ozon Andrew Asibong, 2021-06-15 Available in paperback for the first time this is a full length study of the films of François Ozon director of such diverse films as 8 femmes Swimming Pool 5x2 and Les amants criminels Andrew Asibong's passionate and critical analysis focuses on the extent to which Ozon's seemingly light touch never ceases to engage with the fundamentally weighty issue of existential transformation a transformation that affects both his protagonists and his audiences A central question emerges what is at stake cinematically ethically and politically in Ozon's alternatively utopian and cynical flirtation with the construction and deconstruction of contemporary social relations Revealing Ozon as a highly adept fan of a whole range of thought literature and cinema Asibong places the precocious French auteur in an intellectual yet highly accessible critical framework allowing Ozon's importance for a thoroughly postmodern filmgoing generation to be given the attention it deserves

Claire Denis Judith Mayne, 2005-03-30 Widely regarded as one of the most innovative and passionate filmmakers working in France today Claire Denis has continued to make beautiful and challenging films since the 1988 release of her first feature Chocolat Judith Mayne's comprehensive study traces Denis's career and discusses her major feature films in rich detail Born in Paris but raised in West Africa Denis explores in her films the legacies of French colonialism and the complex relationships between sexuality gender and race From the adult woman who observes her past as a child in Cameroon to the Lithuanian immigrant who arrives in Paris and watches a serial killer to the disgraced French Foreign Legionnaire attempting to make sense of his past the subjects of Denis's films continually revisit themes of watching bearing witness and making contact as well as displacement masculinity and the migratory subject

Collective Inventions Patricia Allmer, Hilde van Gelder, 2007 Collective Inventions constitutes the first collection and book length publication on Surrealism in Belgium on which Belgian and Anglo American scholars have collaborated Collective Inventions offers new writings by leading international scholars and experts on the movement's diverse manifestations in Belgium The essays range from comparative analyses of Surrealism in Belgium with other versions of Surrealism particularly French to detailed critical engagements with individual oeuvres The authors use contemporary theoretical and critical models to explore artistic production in a variety of media including painting and photography film and fashion postcards and Perspex Collective Inventions significantly alters and widens current understandings of Surrealism La France et l'Irlande : destins croisés (16e - 21e siècles) Catherine

Maignan,2013-03-14 L'amitié franco-irlandaise passe pour une évidence mais ses origines et ses expressions parfois insolites sont peu connues Souligner les destins croisés de la France et de l'Irlande entre les XVIIe et XXIe siècles permet de redonner vie des personnages souvent hauts en couleurs qui l'ont incarné au cours des siècles Les réfugiés contraints fuir l'Irlande au XVIIe siècle les soldats des régiments irlandais incorporés aux armées royales françaises mais aussi plus récemment les militants nationalistes ou même une irlandaise active au sein de la Résistance française de la Deuxième guerre mondiale sont quelques uns des héros de cette étude L'inverse la curiosité française vis-à-vis de l'Irlande est mise en évidence par les récits ou photos de voyageurs et même les reportages d'une journaliste passionnée d'Irlande dans la première moitié du XXe siècle Plus récemment ce sont les relations culturelles politiques et religieuses qui sont identifiées et analysées Ce livre résolument interdisciplinaire dans son approche fait enfin appel à la littérature pour mieux cerner les liens profonds et complexes qui unissent les deux pays Urban Notables and Arab Nationalism Philip S. Khoury,Philip Shukry Khoury,2003-12-11 This study attempts to correct the imbalance and in the process provides a fascinating interpretation of the rise of the ideology of nationalism within the Arab world The book focuses on the social and political life of the great notable families of Ottoman Damascus who before World War I played a crucial part in translating the idea into political action Cocteau et le cinéma Philippe Azouary,Jean-Marc Lalanne,2003 Documente les rapports de Cocteau avec le cinéma sa conception de l'artiste confronte au cinéma le traitement de ses images au cinéma et propose une analyse et une recontextualisation de ses films
