Tuesday May 25, 2021: An Exchange of Gifts

Tuesday of the Eighth Week in Ordinary Time. Jesus said, "Amen. I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the Gospel who will not receive a hundred times more." (Mark 10:29-30)

Jesus' statement above is in response to Peter who said to Him, "We have given up everything and followed you. It was as if Peter were patting himself on the back, attempting to highlight just how much he and the other disciples had sacrificed to follow Jesus. And it was true; they did give up everything of their former life. They left home, their occupation, their relationships, and everything that had been part of their daily established life in response to the call of Jesus. They were truly all in. In hearing this statement from Peter, Jesus does not give the expected response. He doesn't say to Peter, "Yes, you have that's very impressive, Peter. Good job, and thank you." Instead, Jesus immediately explains to Peter that the sacrifice he and the others have made is worth it. Their unwavering commitment to follow Jesus would be repaid with gifts beyond their imagination. Thus, Jesus was saying that the gifts that He would bestow upon them would be exponentially greater than every sacrifice they made. This was not a belittling of Peter's self-sacrifice; rather, it was a form of encouragement by Jesus. He was encouraging Peter and the other disciples to have full confidence in their decision to follow Him. Their sacrifice would yield a hundred-fold return. That is truly a good investment. It can be tempting for us all at times to feel as though God asks too much of us. It's true that God asks much of us. He asks everything from us. He asks for the complete and total gift of our lives to Him. He calls us to abandon all selfishness and to dedicate ourselves to His holy will without exception. But if we understand the reward of our self-giving, then the sacrifices we make will pale in comparison to the reward.

Reflect today upon whether or not you can say those words of the Apostle Saint Peter: "Lord, I have given up everything to follow You. Have you truly given your life completely to Christ, Jesus? Are there things that you still hold back, not wanting to sacrifice for our Lord? Ponder those words of Peter and allow yourself to see the areas of your life you still need to surrender over to Jesus. And as you do so, allow the reward promised by our Lord to motivate you to the point that you truly hold nothing back and truly have given up everything to follow His holy will. My generous Lord You ask everything of me You ask me to abandon everything in my pursuit of Your perfect will Give me the grace I need to answer Your call and to live sacrificially for You without counting the cost You are generous beyond description dear Lord and I trust that following You will produce an abundance of good fruit Jesus I trust in You
