Truthful Action Duncan B. Forrester, 2000-12-01 A ground breaking contribution to current debates within Practical Theology and to thinking about its future Professor Forrester argues that the boundaries of Practical Theology must be extended and that it must be both seriously theological and also engaged in sincere dialogue with other disciplines the Church and society He considers especially ministerial formation and Public Theology as areas where Practical Theology has an important contribution to make and presents case studies looking at the practical implications of different approaches

Cartledge, 2015-07-22 How might a distinctively Pentecostal and charismatic theological perspective inform and enrich the discourse of academic practical theology In order to address that question Mark Cartledge in this book probes the relationship between Scripture experience and the Holy Spirit by means of the concept of mediation that is how the divine is experienced in the world An expert in both Pentecostal theology and practical theology Cartledge offers a unique intervention into practical theology through the lens of the Holy Spirit He presents an original reading of Pentecost and the Spirit reception texts in the book of Acts and engages with current literature in both Pentecostal studies and practical theology Further Cartledge places his whole discussion within a broader Protestant theological framework and he interrogates an existing congregational study to provide a real life example of theological intervention The Holy Spirit and Public Life Mark J. Cartledge, 2022-04-04 The Holy Spirit and Public Life offers a masterful analysis of the intersections between pneumatology and public theology as well as contemporary Christianity and secular society Examining issues from race to domestic violence with compassion as well as critical rigour Mark J Cartledge one of the UK s leading authorities on the Pentecostal Charismatic Movement skilfully anchors his argument in both the biblical text and insight and empirical data from the contemporary world His deep appreciation of the many ways in which the Christian faith inspires and empowers transformative social engagement will motivate and mould the rising commitment among Pentecostals and Charismatics to live the gospel in the public square in the power of the Spirit Finally Cartledge proposes that the church engage with society by being truthful with love This posture provides the integrating center for the life of the church and its

Working Against the Grain Anthony G. Reddie, 2014-12-18 Christianity has been both the cause of oppression among Black communities and a source of liberation Black Christianity has sought solace in the redemptive figure of Christ in its struggle for human dignity and freedom Working Against the Grain addresses the displacement of Black theology in Diasporan African churches by charismatic and conservative neo Pentecostalism The essays present a radical Black theology that empowers disenfranchised Black people whilst challenging White power to see and act differently Working Against the Grain is an essential text for all those interested in the pursuit of racial justice and other forms of anti oppressive practice both inside the church and beyond it Theological Education Andrew M. Bain, Ian Hussey, 2018-01-08 This volume draws upon historical and theological sources and empirical research to provide a unique and diverse perspective on theological education in the twenty first century The volume develops and promulgates the best thinking about theological education by drawing upon the breadth of expertise represented by the faculty of colleges within the Australian College of Theology This volume not only produces crucial insights for the future of theological education around the world but gives the Australian theological sector a voice to make its own unique contribution to the global dialogue about theological education The Future of Christology Dong-Kun Kim, 2019-06-28 The Future of Christology addresses the questions that Christology currently faces and or will face in the future in 12 topics The book consists of two parts In the first part Kim deals with five topics related to traditional Christology while in the second part he wrestles with seven topics related to issues of Christology The twenty first century is a challenging time for Christianity Many in our age are asking what Jesus Christ means in various dimensions of history culture nature and even beyond the Earth Changes in values worldviews and views of the universe are forming a new zeitgeist Dong Kun Kim argues that ways of understanding Christ should change accordingly for a Christology that fails to communicate meaningfully with the times is void of vitality Postmodernism dehistoricization and life post ideology multiculturalism multiple religions and above all the rapid development of the natural sciences pose a serious challenge to traditional Christology Who is Christ in the age of an infinite cosmos How do daily human life social devotion and praxis relate to salvation How can we discuss salvation history in an era post history Where does Christ stand in the public sphere Can the Chalcedonian definition of the two natures of Christ true God and true human being encompass nature and the cosmos would a third nature of Christ be necessary Will the cyborg which may appear in the near future be the object of Christ s salvation If scientific determinism becomes popular in the future will the basis of faith in Christ lose ground If intelligent life exists in the universe what does Christ mean to such life This book provides innovative answers to these questions in an academic context

The Trinity, Creation and Pastoral Ministry Graham Buxton,2007-01-01 In this book the author proposes a three way conversation between theology science and pastoral ministry His approach draws on a Trinitarian understanding of God as a relational being of love whose life spills over into all created reality human and nonhuman By locating human meaning and purpose within God s creation community this book offers the possibility of a transforming engagement between those in pastoral ministry and the scientific community

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant,2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

Contemporary Culture Martyn Percy, 2016-04-29 Theology and the churches are often considered to be at the margins of contemporary culture frequently struggling for identity and attention In this important new book Martyn Percy argues that a rich form of practical theological engagement is needed if the churches are to comprehend their situation in the modern world thereby enabling them to engage more confidently with society Drawing on a range of perspectives in the religion culture debate and from case studies in the USA and Europe the book explores the myriad of ways in which culture is now shaping contemporary Christianity and how vital an appreciation of this dynamic is for the self understanding of churches and theology This book explores the crucial and continuing contribution that theology can make to public life in an era that is often perceived to be dominated by consumerism and secularity It will especially appeal to scholars of contemporary religion practical theologians and all those who are engaged in ministerial formation Forming Ministers or Training Leaders?

Anthony Clarke, 2021-06-15 Forming Ministers or Training Leaders is a unique book because it is based on a significant piece of empirical research Anthony Clarke explores the way that the practice among theological colleges in the UK has been changing and develops the concept of the pastoral imagination to express what a theological college is aiming to do with its students The book then offers an analysis of the pastoral imagination that is in fact at work in a selection of Baptist colleges and other theological institutions in the UK Alongside this Clarke offers a coherent and robust theological account of the work of a theological college through engaging with recent trinitarian theology and argues that this is best understood as a process of formation which embraces other ideas of training and education Ordained Local Ministry in the Church of England Andrew Bowden, Leslie J. Francis, Elizabeth Jordan, Oliver Simon, 2012-06-14 Ordained Anglican ministry is changing rapidly Soon the majority of clergy are likely to be volunteers and especially in rural areas female All mainstream Churches recognise that new contexts need new forms of ministry Ordained Local Ministers OLMs are priests specifically called out by their local congregation and ordained to minister in that locality Half the dioceses in England and elsewhere in the Anglican Communion including Australasia Scotland and North America have established formal schemes to enable this type of ministry Some dioceses believe the process has helped to revitalise parishes and raise the spiritual temperature of congregations Others have called a halt believing their schemes have somehow gone wrong or have not delivered The time has come for a calm assessment of available evidence about an experiment into which the Church has poured considerable time effort and money over the last twenty years Does it have ongoing value or is it just one more bright idea that has flourished for a season and has now had its day
