Zona Mediterranea Mediterranean Zone:

Mediterranean Politics Richard Gillespie, 1994 Mediterranean Politics is a new yearbook providing a major new perspective on European Union events contemporary trends and developments in the region during the previous year

Ecology and Biogeography of Mediterranean Ecosystems in Chile, California, and Australia Mary T. Kalin Arroyo, Paul H. Zedler, Marlyn D. Fox, 2012-12-06 Mediterranean type ecosystems have provided ecologists with some of the most scientifically rewarding opportunities to formulate and evaluate hypotheses about large and small scale ecological phenomena Comparison of mediterranean type climate ecosystems in different parts of the world has not only permitted a strong test for ecological convergence but also critical understanding of key ecophysiological and population processes

Marine Specially Protected Area: The General Aspects and the Mediterranean Regional System Tullio Scovazzi, 1999-01-01 In the last few years several States have established specially protected marine areas under their domestic legislation At the international level the trend towards providing an increased protection to certain marine spaces has also been reflected in a number of treaties and declarations This volume reviews the recent developments in the field of specially protected marine areas and preservation of the marine environment in general with particular emphasis on a specific region the Mediterranean Sea Special attention is devoted to the latter for three reasons First the regional framework for the protection of the environment in the Mediterranean the so called Barcelona system has recently been updated and strengthened Second the Mediterranean is a typical example of the category of semi enclosed seas where international cooperation between the bordering States should be particularly encouraged in various fields this also explains why the scope of this book has been enlarged to also cover fisheries a field which is closely connected to the sustainable development of marine areas Last and not least the parochial inclination of the editor also influenced his choice To complete the picture the relevant texts have been reproduced and a series of maps showing some specially protected marine areas have been drawn Regional Architecture in the Mediterranean Area Alessandro Bucci, Luigi Mollo, 2010 Biological Invasions in Europe and the Mediterranean Basin F. di Castri, A.J. Hansen, M. Debussche, 2012-12-06 In view of the massive change in the area of distribution of many world biota across classical biogeographical realms and of the drastic restructuring of the biotic components of numerous ecosystems the Scientific Committee on Problems of the Environment SCOPE decided at its general Assembly in Ottawa Canada in 1982 to launch a project on the Ecology of Biological Invasions Several regional meetings were subsequently organized within the framework of SCOPE in order to single out the peculiarities of the invasions that took place in each region the behaviour of their invasive species and the invasibility of their ecosystems Most noteworthy among such workshops were one in Australia in August 1984 one concerning North America and Hawaii in October 1984 and one dealing with southern Africa in November 1985 A leitmotiv of these workshops was that most of the invasive species to those regions were emanating from Europe and the Mediterranean Basin inadvertently or intentionally introduced by man It was therefore considered as a timely endeavour to organize the next regional meeting in relation to this region The workshop on Biological Invasions in Europe and the Mediterranean Basin was held in Montpellier France 21 to 23 May 1986 thanks to the financial support of SCOPE and of the A W Mellon Foundation and the logistic facilities of the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique C N R S Agrovoc ,1992 The Ovoid Amphorae in the Central and Western Mediterranean Enrique García Vargas,Rui Roberto de Almeida,Horacio González Cesteros,Antonio Sáez Romero,2019-09-30 Based on the proceedings of a workshop held at Seville University in 2015 this book looks at several series of amphorae created in the Late Republican Roman period sharing a generally ovoid shape in their bodies a group of material which until now has rarely been studied Elsevier's Dictionary of Geography Vladimir Kotlyakov,Anna Komarova,2006-12-20 Geography is a system of highly developed sciences about the environment Geographical science embracing the study of the Earth s physical phenomena people and their economic activities has always been in need of an extensive terminology Geographical terms are related to the terms of natural sciences physics chemistry biology geology etc and humanities history economics sociology etc since geography is based on these fundamental subjects Geography includes a number of disciplines and subdivisions which appeared along with the development of the science In spite of being very different geographical disciplines have some common tools of investigation which is maps comparative method of exploration remote sensing geoinformation systems Today very well developed terminologies of all the specialist fields of geography and related subjects exist in the main world languages However they are not always well correlated Nowadays geographical terminology requires unification and international correlation more than ever before Hence the idea of compiling a multilingual polydisciplinary dictionary The Dictionary consists of the basic table of terms arranged according to the order of the English alphabet with each term numbered Each entry consists of the term in English and its equivalents in Russian French German Spanish Short definitions of terms are given in English and in Russian The terms are supplied with the necessary grammar labels such as gender of nouns plural number etc The Dictionary combines two functions that of a defining dictionary and that of a bilingual dictionary These two functions are basically contradictory because usually the defining dictionary is aimed at giving one meaning of the word which is the main and essential one while the bilingual dictionary tries to give different equivalents of a given word in the other language in order to supply the user with maximum possible translations differing in the shades of meanings thus giving him the possibility to choose the appropriate word But in our Dictionary we intentionally decided to combine the two functions defining and multilingual because a short definition of the term and equivalents in other languages help to achieve our main aim which consists in showing the basic geographical terminology and harmonizing it in several languages Having this into consideration we deliberately mixed two types of dictionaries in one Organized alphabetically via English Provides short definition of geographical terms in English and Russian Includes multilingual translation of terms from English to Russian French German Spanish Wildlife Review ,1985 Dryland Farming,

1982-May 1988 Henry Gilbert,1988 The Mediterranean Region Jacques Blondel,2010-01-28 This is a detailed illustrated and up to date study of the fauna flora landscapes coastal areas and seascapes of the entire Mediterranean Basin and the Sea itself Since the publication of the first edition in 1999 the field has advanced in significant ways and this revision is timely Agricultural and Farmer Cooperatives, 1979-April 1988 Patricia La Caille John,1988 Sabkha Ecosystems Bilquees Gul,Benno Böer,M. Ajmal Khan,Miguel Clüsener-Godt,Abdul Hameed,2019-08-05 This book is the sixth and final volume in the Tasks for Vegetation Science book series and it concludes the most comprehensive scientific documentation dealing with hypersaline ecosystems of the world The Physical Geography of South America Thomas T. Veblen,Kenneth R. Young,Antony R. Orme,2015-12-01 The Physical Geography of South America the eighth volume in the Oxford Regional Environments series presents an enduring statement on the physical and biogeographic conditions of this remarkable continent and their relationships to human activity It fills a void in recent environmental literature by assembling a team of specialists from within and beyond South America in order to provide an integrated cross disciplinary body of knowledge about this mostly tropical continent together with its high mountains and temperate southern cone The authors systematically cover the main components of the South American environment tectonism climate glaciation natural landscape changes rivers vegetation animals and soils The book then presents more specific treatments of regions with special attributes from the tropical forests of the Amazon basin to the Atacama Desert and Patagonian steppe and from the Atlantic Caribbean and Pacific coasts to the high Andes Additionally the continents environments are given a human face by evaluating the roles played by people over time from pre European and European colonial impacts to the effects of modern agriculture and urbanization and from interactions with El Ni o events to prognoses for the future environments of the continent The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2018 Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo,2019-08-16 The Global Community Yearbook is a one stop resource for all researchers studying international law generally or international tribunals specifically The Yearbook has established itself as an authoritative source of reference on global legal issues and international jurisprudence It includes analysis of the most significant global trends in a way that allows readers to monitor the development of the global legal order from several perspectives The Global Community Yearbook publishes annually in a volume of carefully chosen primary source material and corresponding expert commentary The general editor Professor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo employs her vast expertise in international law to select excerpts from important court opinions and to choose experts from around the world to contribute essay guides which illuminate those cases Although the main focus is recent case law from the major international tribunals and regional courts the first four parts of each year s edition features expert articles by renowned scholars who address broader themes in current and future developments in international law and global policy themes that appear throughout the case law of the many courts covered by the series as a whole The Global Community Yearbook has thus become not just an indispensable window to recent jurisprudence the series now also serves to prepare researchers for the issues facing emerging global law The 2018 edition both updates readers on the important work of long standing international tribunals and introduces readers to more novel topics in international law The Yearbook continues to provide expert coverage of the Court of Justice of the European Union and diverse tribunals from the International Court of Justice ICJ to criminal tribunals such as the International Criminal Court ICC and the Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda to economically based tribunals such as ICSID and the WTO Dispute Resolution panel This edition contains original research articles on the development and analysis of the concept of global law and the views of the global law theorists such as whether the Paris Declaration of 2017 and the Oslo Recommendation of 2018 deals with enhancing their institutions legitimacy how to reconcile human rights trade law intellectual property investment and health law with the WTO dispute settlement panel upholding Australia s tobacco plain packaging measure Israel s acceptance of Palestinian statehood contingent upon prior Palestinian demilitarization is potentially contrary to pertinent international law and a proposal to strengthen cooperation between the ECJ and National Courts in light of the failure of the dialogue between the ECJ and the Italian Constitutional Court on the interpretation of Article 325 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European union The Yearbook provides students scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates as well as an annual overview of the process of cross fertilization between international courts and tribunals The Yearbook provides students scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates as well as an annual overview of the process of cross fertilization between international courts and tribunals and a section focusing on the thought of leading international law scholars on the subject of the globalization This publication can also be purchased on a standing order basis
