Zygmunt Bauman Liquid Fears:

Liquid Fear Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-05-08 Modernity was supposed to be the period in human history when the fears that pervaded social life in the past could be left behind and human beings could at last take control of their lives and tame the uncontrolled forces of the social and natural worlds And yet at the dawn of the twenty first century we live again in a time of fear Whether its the fear of natural disasters the fear of environmental catastrophes or the fear of indiscriminate terrorist attacks we live today in a state of constant anxiety about the dangers that could strike unannounced and at any moment Fear is the name we give to our uncertainty in the face of the dangers that characterize our liquid modern age to our ignorance of what the threat is and our incapacity to determine what can and can t be done to counter it This new book by Zygmunt Bauman one of the foremost social thinkers of our time is an inventory of liquid modern fears It is also an attempt to uncover their common sources to analyse the obstacles that pile up on the road to their discovery and to examine the ways of putting them out of action or rendering them harmless Through his brilliant account of the fears and anxieties that weigh on us today Bauman alerts us to the scale of the task which we shall have to confront through most of the current century if we wish our fellow humans to emerge at its end feeling more secure and self confident than we feel at its beginning Liquid Times

Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-04-17 The passage from solid to liquid modernity has created a new and unprecedented setting for individual life pursuits confronting individuals with a series of challenges never before encountered Social forms and institutions no longer have enough time to solidify and cannot serve as frames of reference for human actions and long term life plans so individuals have to find other ways to organise their lives They have to splice together an unending series of short term projects and episodes that don t add up to the kind of sequence to which concepts like career and progress could meaningfully be applied Such fragmented lives require individuals to be flexible and adaptable to be constantly ready and willing to change tactics at short notice to abandon commitments and loyalties without regret and to pursue opportunities according to their current availability In liquid modernity the individual must act plan actions and calculate the likely gains and losses of acting or failing to act under conditions of endemic uncertainty Zygmunt Bauman s brilliant writings on liquid modernity have altered the way we think about the contemporary world In this short book he explores the sources of the endemic uncertainty which shapes our lives today and in so doing he provides the reader with a brief and accessible introduction to his highly original account developed at greater length in his previous books of life in our liquid modern times

State of Fear in a Liquid World Carlo Bordoni, 2016-11-03 This book examines the insecurity that besets our lives in the contemporary world whether as a result of natural disasters human negligence or more recently threats to security in the form of terrorist activity which itself gives rise to new fears fear of travel agoraphobia distrust of others and existential anxieties Revealing the connection between the two components of our insecurity as reflecting on and conditioning human existence and producing social problems the author brings this to bear on the notion of security that modernity had sought to guarantee to its citizens a notion that has slowly crumbled with the crisis of modernity and with the emergence of the liquid world. Now insecurity is endemic and has so firmly become part of us as to be accepted as an unpleasant aspect of normality that we must live with. However, the necessity of living in a risk society in which security has emerged as important does nothing to dispel the fear that accompanies us at all times. An engagement with the thought of Bauman that explores fear as an accompaniment to the end of modernity and its assurances. State of Fear in a Liquid World offers developments of the thesis of liquid modernity and will appeal to scholars and students of sociology, social theory and politics with interests in individualisation, social change and in security. Fear and the Making of Foreign Policy Raymond Taras, 2015-03-24. This is a book about conflicts and fears how domestic reasons are drawing countries in Europe into international events. Raymond Taras explains why France, Poland and Sweden have become engaged in outside conflicts and tells the story of when and why. Media and the Dissemination of Fear Nelson Ribeiro, Christian Schwarzenegger, 2021-12-03. This book offers a diachronical and intertransmedia approach to the relationship of media and fear in a variety of geographical and cultural settings. This allows for an in-depth understanding of the media's role in pandemics, wars and other crises as well as in political intimidation. The book assembles chapters from a variety of authors focusing on the relation between media and fear in the West, the Middle East, the Arab World and China. Besides its geographical and cultural diversity, the volume also takes a long-term perspective bringing together cases from transforming media environments which span over a century. The book establishes a strong and historically persistent nexus between media and fear which finds ever new forms with new media but always follows similar logics. Liquid Life Zygmunt Bauman, 2005-06-24. A new book by one of the most original and brilliant social thinkers of our time. Extends and develops some of the key themes in other Bauman titles namely what it is to live in a time of liquid modernity, identity, culture and consumerism. Expressions of Fear from Antiquity to the Contemporary World Ana-Cristina Halichias, Maria-Luiza Dumitru Oancea, Nicolae-Andrei Popa, 2016-06-22. The volume offers a timely discussion of the feeling of fear adopting a diachronic and complex perspective taking into account its various forms including its literary, mythological, anthropological, psychoanalytical, etymological, philosophical, theological and historiographical representations among others. It tackles the concept of fear in a range of time periods in cultural and literary history from the Archaic Period and Greco-Roman Classical Antiquity to the modern and postmodern periods. As such, the volume marks an extremely relevant contribution to scholarship in the humanities and will be of interest to scholars, professors and students as well as anyone interested in the analysis of profound human feelings. Terrorist's Creed R. Griffin, 2012-09-19. Terrorist's Creed casts a penetrating beam of empathetic understanding into the disturbing and murky psychological world of fanatical violence explaining how the fanaticism it demands stems from the profoundly human need to imbue existence with meaning and transcendence. Liquid Modernity Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-07-10. In this new book Bauman examines how we have moved away from a heavy and solid hardware-focused modernity to a light and liquid software based modernity This passage he argues has brought profound change to all aspects of the human condition The new remoteness and unreachability of global systemic structure coupled with the unstructured and under defined fluid state of the immediate setting of life politics and human togetherness call for the rethinking of the concepts and cognitive frames used to narrate human individual experience and their joint history This book is dedicated to this task Bauman selects five of the basic concepts which have served to make sense of shared human life emancipation individuality time space work and community and traces their successive incarnations and changes of meaning Liquid Modernity concludes the analysis undertaken in Bauman's two previous books Globalization The Human Consequences and In Search of Politics Together these volumes form a brilliant analysis of the changing conditions of social and political life by one of the most original thinkers writing today

A Moral Climate Michael S. Northcott, 2007 This text examines the most inconvenient truth of all and the most important our moral responsibility for climate change Bauman's Challenge M. Davis, Keith Tester, 2010-05-07 This unique and original collection by internationally renowned scholars uses critical engagements with Baumans sociology to identify and better understand the challenges that face globalized human societies at the start of the twenty first century

Democracy in Crisis Stella Gaon, 2009 This volume explores the political implications of violence and alterity radical difference for the very practice of democracy and reformulates the possibility of community that democracy is said to imply Most significantly contributors intervene in traditional democratic theory by boldly contesting the widely held assumption that increased inclusion tolerance and cultural recognition are democracy's sufficient conditions Rather than simply inquiring how best to expand the demos they investigate how claims to self determination identity and sovereignty are a problem for democracy and how paradoxically alterity may be its greatest strength Drawing largely on the Left continental tradition contributions include an appeal to the tension between fear and love in the face of anti-Semitism in Poland an injunction to rethink the identity difference binary that dominates liberal democratic thought a critique of the canonical democratic we and a call for an ethics and a politics of dissensus in democratic struggles against racist and sexist oppression The authors thus mobilize some of the most powerful critical insights emerging across the social sciences and humanities from anthropology critical legal studies critical race theory and post colonial studies Marxism psychoanalysis social and political thought philosophy and sociology to reconsider the meaning and possibility of democracy in the face of its contemporary crisis The book directly appeals to students and scholars interested in cutting edge critical reflection on the empirical phenomenon of increased violence in the West provoked by radical difference and on the possibility of radical political theoretical critique

The Question of Resilience Kirsten Hastrup, 2009 Europe and the Spectre of Post-growth Society Piotr Świąłski, 2014 Europe has been going through its most serious crisis of values since the fall of communism In public discourse economic and social pressures have overshadowed the other dimensions of the crisis including societal values However the crisis of values would appear to be more than simply an effect of the recession

Europeans have lost trust in democratic institutions at all levels European national and local Rising xenophobia and discrimination against minorities undermine the vitality of the European model of tolerance Europe is plagued by endemic corruption which costs it more than 100 billion euro annually triggering political instability Some believe that once Europe is back on the path of growth the crisis of values will disappear and that there will be a resurgence of faith in European integration But in the long term growth in Western societies may be impaired by serious headwinds resulting from demographic trends and rising inequalities and Europe may become the first post growth society European societies are already changing their traditional characteristics as a result of exposure to the effects of two global mega trends the empowerment of the individual and cosmopolitisation Can the European project be of relevance when addressing these challenges What role in this process can be played by the Council of Europe which is the embodiment of the idea that Europe is bigger than the European Union and the European agenda is richer than the economy and politics

Globalization and the State Willem Schinkel, 2009-01-30 This book seeks to constitute a constructive and significant intervention in the debate on globalization by investigating the state of the Western state in terms of politics the economy and law Polish Sociological Review ,2008 IBSS: Sociology: 2009 Vol. 59 Compiled by the British Library of Polit, 2010-11 First published in 2010 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Towards a Europe of Shared Social Responsibilities Council of Europe Publishing, 2011 The need to develop collective skills to acquire a shared long term vision and to manage change is evident given that resources are limited and there is no such thing as complete independence or immunity from the damaging effects of other people s acts or failures to act Current trends are having a significant effect on both the scope and the substance of specific responsibilities individual or collective voluntary or statutory In addition extreme interdependence exacerbates the differences between values concepts of well being and interests potentially giving rise to mutually destructive conflicts wastage of resources and externally negative consequences Hence the Council of Europe s proposal to adopt the concept of shared social responsibility as a vital adjunct to specific responsibilities to make them more meaningful In accordance with this concept which is the subject of a charter addressed to governments and to all stakeholders all parties are encouraged to
