Theado,2021-09-15 The Beats Black Mountain and New Modes of American Poetry explores correspondences amongst the Black Mountain and Beat Generation writers two of most well known and influential groups of poets in the 1950s The division of writers as Beat or Black Mountain has hindered our understanding of the ways that these poets developed from mutual influences benefitted from direct relations and overlapped their boundaries This collection of academic essays refines and adds context to Beat Studies and Black Mountain Studies by investigating the groups intersections and undercurrents One goal of the book is to deconstruct the Beat and Black Mountain labels in order to reveal the shifting and fluid relationships among the individual poets who developed a revolutionary poetics in the 1950s and beyond Taken together these essays clarify the radical experimentation with poetics undertaken by these poets Backwoods: A Collection of Rural Poetry of Love, Truth, Life and Death , Text and Tradition in Early Modern North India Tyler Williams,Anshu Malhotra,John S. Hawley,2018-01-03 Early modern India a period extending from the fifteenth to the late eighteenth century saw dramatic cultural religious and political changes as it went from Sultanate to Mughal to early colonial rule Witness to the rise of multiple literary and devotional traditions this period was characterized by immense political energy and cultural vibrancy Text and Tradition in Early Modern North India brings together recent scholarship on the languages literatures and religious traditions of northern India It focuses on the rise of vernacular languages as vehicles for literary expression and historical and religious self assertion and particularly attends to ways in which these regional spoken languages connect with each other and their cosmopolitan counterparts Hindu Muslim and Jain idioms emerge in new ways and the effect of the volume as a whole is to show that they belong to a single complex cultural conversation Long Line Writer ,2006 Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden,2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis Sunset Strands Satyapal Anand,2011-12 Satyapal Anand s poetry is cerebral rather than emotional It reveals a many splendored splash of color and sound He is an imagist in the sense that his images appeal to all our senses and we feel that what we read is a poem but what we see is a multidimensional picture Satyapal Anand excels his fellow contemporary poets insofar as his symbolism is nearer to the collective unconscious mind of the race as a whole In this mythology classical literature and multiple dimensions of religious experience play a great part This book has no fewer than seventy poems There is no unrelieved romanticism no unhealthy self pity no wallowing in the luxury of grief but there is experience that gives rise to ideas and feelings and their healthy amalgam Anand's art consists in isolating a single experience as a unit shorn of its dross and outer embellishments and then subject it to a poetic inquiry For example two of his poems find photogenic correspondence between progenitive sex in human beings and in flora and fauna one happening in the bedroom and the other in the garden outside This privacy of reproductive process in such a tender poetic expression is unmatched in poetry An important package is of trans creations or creative translations of the poet's own work in other Eastern languages Satyapal Anand uses poetic devices like alliteration the parallelism of low tones and slow stroke or rhymes that are enjambed to escape the suffocating atmosphere of close lines However the devices he uses show cerebration cleverness and control of the finest order
