Professional Guidelines for Christian English Teachers Kitty Purgason,2016-09-30 This handbook is for people in the field of English language teaching who are looking for practical ways to be both committed followers of Jesus and ethical TESOL professionals What do such teachers actually do in the classroom What materials do they use How do they relate to their students and colleagues in and outside the classroom How can they treat students as whole people with spiritual and religious identities How can they set a high bar for ethical teaching Professional Guidelines for Christian English Teachers has grown out of Kitty Purgason s experience as a Christian seeking to follow the Great Commandment and the Great Commission as a practitioner with a deep concern for excellence and integrity and as a teacher trainer with experience in many parts of the world

Curious Tom Hughes,2015-09-17 Did you know that of the 183 questions Jesus was asked he answered only four of them directly The other 179 he answered with questions or sometimes a story Questions are not the enemy of faith they are the way Jesus most often helped people not just say the right things but live the right ways The joy creativity and the adventure we were created to live begin with asking the right questions and then living into the answers with God s help If you are wondering how to draw closer to Jesus and live your unique adventure with him Curious will help you question by question step into the future God has for you If you are a leader who wonders how to lead well without burning out Curious will show you how by asking the right questions you can help empower those you influence to greater motivation and creativity as they live out their answers to these questions with God s help As Jesus demonstrated asking the right questions at the right time and communicating them in the right spirit can transform hearts and change the world Let Tom Hughes thread together stories that will lead you into a new sense of confidence not in yourself but in the God who loves you and calls you according to his good purpose The Road to Missional (Shapevine) Michael Frost,2011-10-01 It has recently become acceptable and even fashionable to refer to one's church as missional. But many churches misunderstand the concept, thinking of going missional as simply being a necessary add-on to church as usual. This domestication of what is actually a very bold paradigm shift makes missional nothing more than one more trick to see church growth. With a light hand and a pastoral spirit, Michael Frost points out how church practitioners are not quite there yet. He reestablishes the ground rules, redefines the terms accurately, and insists that the true prophetic essence of being missional comes through undiluted. This clear corrective will take ministry leaders from not missional yet to well on their way. Beyond Awkward Beau Crosetto, 2014-09-15. We love to share good news with the world: a great restaurant, a coveted promotion, a new baby, and that makes us evangelists for many things. So why don't we do the same with Jesus? Simply put, talking about Jesus is awkward. Yet when we brave the awkwardness, we see God work. Beau Crosetto helps us move out of our comfort zones and beyond the awkwardness to share the life-transforming power of God with others. Effective Intercultural Evangelism W. Jay Moon, W. Bud Simon, 2021-08-24. We live in a multicultural society, but many Christians hesitate to engage those of other faiths about Christianity. Exploring evangelism from the perspective of four major worldviews, Jay Moon and Bud Simon unpack the intercultural dynamics at hand when sharing the gospel across cultures, offering contextual evangelism approaches that are relevant, biblical, and practical. Apologetics for the Twenty-First Century Louis Markos, 2010-10-06. The vibrant and persuasive arguments of C. S. Lewis brought about a shift in the discipline of apologetics, moving the conversation from the ivory tower to the public square. The resulting strain of popular apologetics, which weaves through Lewis into twentieth-century writers like Francis Schaeffer and modern apologists like William Lane Craig, Josh McDowell, and Lee Strobel, has equipped countless believers to defend their faith against its detractors. Apologetics for the Twenty-First Century uses Lewis's work as the starting point for an absorbing survey of the key apologists and major arguments that inform apologetics today. Like apologists before him, Markos writes to engage Christians of all denominations as well as seekers and skeptics. His narrative, man-of-letters style and short chapters make Apologetics for the Twenty-First Century easily accessible for the general reader. But an extensive and heavily annotated bibliography, detailed timeline, list of prominent apologists, and glossary of common terms will satisfy the curiosity of the seasoned academic as the book prepares all readers to meet the particular challenges of defending the faith today. Teaching for Spiritual Formation Kyle R. Hughes, 2022-01-06. In Teaching for Spiritual Formation, church historian and experienced Christian educator Kyle R. Hughes advances a fresh vision of Christian teaching and learning by drawing upon the riches of the Christian tradition, synthesizing the wisdom of the early church fathers with contemporary efforts to cultivate a distinctively Christian approach to education. Of interest to a wide range of Christian educators, this book examines how the writings of five significant church fathers can illuminate our understanding of the vocation of teachers, the nature of students, the purpose of curriculum decisions about pedagogy, and how spiritual formation works. Besides reimagining these aspects of Christian education, Hughes also offers habits and practices that can help bring this vision of Christian teaching and learning to life challenging Christian educators to sharpen their approach to the integration of faith and learning in practical and accessible ways Beginning with God James W. Sire, 2017-07-04 In this personal easy to read book James Sire offers a basic introduction to the foundational beliefs of Christianity for seekers and believers who want to understand the central teachings of the Bible The chapters in this expanded edition are organized around a simple scheme creation fall redemption new life in Christ life in the church

Kingdom Calling Amy L. Sherman, 2011-11-02 Amy Sherman unpacks Proverbs 11 10 When the righteous prosper the city rejoices to develop a theology and program of vocational stewardship Here is practical help for churches ministries and other faith communities to navigate the complex process of following Jesus in those places where we happen to prosper Images of Salvation in the New Testament Brenda B. Colijn, 2010-10-05 The New Testament does not develop a systematic doctrine of salvation writes Brenda Colijn Instead it presents us with a variety of pictures taken from different perspectives Students of the New Testament and of theology will both find their vision broadened and their understanding deepened by this rich informative study As the author seeks to understand their implications for people of faith she uncovers how New Testament images provide the building blocks of the master story of redemption Not in Kansas Anymore David Ian Starling, Darrell

R. Jackson, 2020-06-09 Breaking the Huddle Don Everts, Doug Schaupp, Val Gordon, 2016-11-02 Most Christians are stuck in the huddle focusing on our own needs and limiting our relationships with outsiders Don Everts Doug Schaupp and Val Gordon explain how our churches can become conversion communities where evangelistic growth becomes the new normal and the whole community itself becomes a winsome thriving witness to those around it Go and Do Don

Everts, 2012-05-15 In this manifesto for missional Christians Don Everts brings together personal evangelism urban witness and global crosscultural mission to show how a life of total mission is possible In every situation to see what Jesus is doing and to go and do likewise Good News Church John P Bowen, Michael P Knowles, 2018-05-28 In more than forty years of ministry Harold Percy has sought to waken a slumbering church by reminding it of its true calling to imaginative evangelism faithful discipleship and innovative leadership As a priest in the Anglican Diocese of Toronto and as founding Director of the Wycliffe College Institute of Evangelism Harold has challenged and encouraged leaders in a range of denominations across Canada through articles and books conferences and workshops This books engages in lively dialogue with Harold s many contributions to the life of the church today with chapters on leadership discipleship spirituality congregational ministry and missional outreach from eighteen pastoral practitioners all of whom continue to expand on his unique legacy in the service of Christ Equipping Christians for Kingdom Purpose in Their Work Tom Lutz, Heidi Unruh, 2021-11-15 In Equipping

Christians for Kingdom Purpose in Their Work Tom Lutz and Heidi Unruh offer advice to those who seek to influence the faith of people outside the church Pastors Christian educators life coaches workplace mentors college professors and any Christian who considers their vocation to be one of discipleship will find nourishment in this book Few resources are designed for personal disciplers those who connect with other believers on a personal basis with a deep interest in their spiritual growth This book fills the gap This one of a kind resource shows how to disciple others in and for their work Most faith and work books focus on pastors and church programs or they speak directly to workers But this resource comes to the aid of those who offer spiritual guidance to working Christians This guide makes faith and work discipleship accessible to anyone who influences the faith of another With short readable chapters filled with case studies examples and practical resources readers will learn how to equip others to fulfill their kingdom purpose in their work Sample topics include Principles for Effectively Connecting with Adult Learners Structure for One on One Discipleship Meetings Research on Vocational Discipleship and Kingdom Centered Spiritual Maturity Various Leadership Models Scripture Passages on Being an Image Bearer Selected Scriptures for Faith and Work Principles The Reluctant Witness Don Everts, 2019-07-30 Don Everts grew up assuming that spiritual conversations are always painful and awkward But his surprising and sometimes embarrassing stories affirm what Scripture and the latest research reveal spiritual conversations can actually be a delight With original research from the Barna Group on spiritual conversations in the digital age this book offers fresh insights and best practices for how to become eager conversationalists
