each of the four Gospels as a whole Some articles such as the Dead Sea Scrolls rabbinic traditions and revolutionary movements at the time of Jesus provide significant background information to the Gospels Others reflect recent and less familiar issues in Jesus and Gospel studies such as divine man ancient rhetoric and the chreiai Contemporary concerns of general interest are discussed in articles covering such topics as healing the demonic and the historical reliability of the Gospels And for those entrusted with communicating the message of the Gospels there is an extensive article on preaching from the Gospels The Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels presents the fruit of evangelical New Testament scholarship at the end of the twentieth century committed to the authority of Scripture utilising the best of critical methods and maintaining dialog with contemporary scholarship and challenges facing the church and 1 Peter with the African American Great Migration Jennifer T. Kaalund, 2018-11-29 Kaalund examines the constructed and contested Christian Jewish identities in Hebrews and 1 Peter through the lens of the New Negro a diasporic identity similarly constructed and contested during the Great Migration in the early 20th century Like the identity Christian the New Negro emerged in a context marked by instability creativity and the need for a sense of permanence in a hostile political environment Upon examination both identities also show complex internal diversity and debate that disrupts any simple articulation as purely resistant or accommodating to its hegemonic and oppressive environment Kaalund's investigation into the construction of the New Negro highlights this multiplicity and contends that the rhetoric of place race and gender were integral to these processes of inventing a way of being in the world that was seemingly not reliant on one's physical space Putting these issues into dialogue with 1 Peter and Hebrews allows for a reading of the formation of Christian identity as similarly engaging the rhetoric of place and race in constructive and contested ways Aliens in Your Native Land Warner M. Bailey, 2020-07-24 Living as an alien in one's native land is a familiar reality to marginalized communities Cultural economic and political shifts can cause people to become alienated by a system of greed racism sexism xenophobia and media manipulation How can Christians persist under a sustained threat within a social order diametrically opposed to them This question drives Warner Bailey's investigation of 1 Peter The mature Christology of 1 Peter yields a profile of Christian identity This picture is funded by texts from the Book of the Twelve Hosea Malachi and is counter intuitive in that it is able to create new initiatives for behavior that offer hope for redemption in the midst of oppression Bailey explores how 1 Peter has been used in shaping the life of modern aliens such as Dietrich Bonhoeffer living in his own country under the oppression of Nazism and feminist black immigrant and LGBTQIA readers Placing 1 Peter within the crisis in U.S. political and economic life opens up fresh implications for faithful ecclesiastical practice and personal witness
