Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee, Retief Moller, L. D. Hansen, 2015-05-01. This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period. In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with for example the Christian Institute the South African Council of Churches and the people involved in both. Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity.

Pan-Africanism: Political Philosophy and Socio-Economic Anthropology for African Liberation and Governance Kini-Yen Kinni, 2015-09-23. This Book is the outcome of a long project begun thirty years ago. It is a book on the makings of pan Africanism through the predicaments of being black in a world dominated by being white. The book is a tribute and celebration of the efforts of the African American and African Caribbean Diaspora who took the initiative and the audacity to fight and liberate themselves from the shackles of slavery. It is also a celebration of those Africans who in their own way carried the torch of inspiration and resilience to save and reconstruct the Free Humanism of Africa. As a story of the rise from the shackles of slavery and poverty to the summit of Victors of their Renaissance Identity and Self Determination as a People the book is the story of African refusal to celebrate victimhood. The book also situates women as central actors in the Pan African project which is often presented as an exclusively masculine endeavour. It introduces a balanced gender approach and diagnosis of the Women actors of Pan Africanism which was very much lacking The problem of balkanisation of Africa on post colonial affiliations and colonial linguistic lines has taken its toll on Africa's building of its common identity and personality The result is that Africans are more remote to each other in their pigeon hole nation states which put more restrictions for African inter mobility coupled by education and cultural affiliations the communication and transportation and trading networks which are still tied more to their colonial masters than among themselves This book looks into the problem of the new wave of Pan Africanism and what strategies that can be proposed for a more participatory Pan Africanism inspired by the everyday realities of African masses at home and in the diaspora This book is the first book of its kind that gives a comprehensive and multidimensional coverage of Pan Africanism It is a very timely and vital compendium
