Ziba Came On A Boat:

Ziba Came on a Boat Liz Lofthouse, 2007 Based on real events is the moving story of a little girl whose family has lost almost everything This beautiful picture book takes us on her brave journey to make a new life far from home The

Palgrave Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century Fractures and Disruptions in Children's

Literature Maria Teresa Cortez, Sandie Mourão, Ana Margarida Ramos, 2017-11-06 In March 2015 the eleventh edition of The Child and the Book Conference was organized at the University of Aveiro in Portugal The conference was related to the theme of fracture and disruption in children s and young adult literature This publication provides not only a synthesis of the main reflections but also a starting point for understanding the issues of fracture and disruption within children s and young adult literature The volume gathers texts from consolidated figures within the field of research in Children s Literature as well as contributions from junior researchers creating bridges and dialogue between both generations and critical and theoretical approaches It includes chapters on violence war sexuality and politics discussion around formal stylistic perspectives analysis of fringe works and hybrid literary forms as well as the issue of audience and the crossover universe Special reference should be given to the inclusion of contributions from lesser known countries and literatures such as Brazil Italy Norway Poland and Portugal The volume will be of interest to children s literature specialists graduate and post graduate students librarians and mediators of reading Contemporary Children's Literature and Film Kerry

Mallan, 2011-07-13 Bringing together leading and emerging scholars this book argues for the significance of theory for reading texts written and produced for young people Integrating perspectives from across feminism ecocriticism postcolonialism and poststructuralism it demonstrates how these inform approaches to a range of contemporary literature and film Handbook of Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre-Service Professionals Hartsfield, Danielle

E.,2021-06-25 Perspectives and identity are typically reinforced at a young age giving teachers the responsibility of selecting reading material that could potentially change how the child sees the world This is the importance of sharing diverse literature with today s children and young adults which introduces them to texts that deal with religion gender identities racial identities socioeconomic conditions etc Teachers and librarians play significant roles in placing diverse books in the hands of young readers However to achieve the goal of increasing young people s access to diverse books educators and librarians must receive quality instruction on this topic within their university preparation programs The Handbook of Research on Teaching Diverse Youth Literature to Pre Service Professionals is a comprehensive reference source that curates promising practices that teachers and librarians are currently applying to prepare aspiring teachers and librarians for sharing and teaching diverse youth literature Given the importance of sharing diverse books with today s young people university educators must be aware of engaging and effective methods for teaching diverse literature to pre service teachers and librarians Covering topics such as syllabus development diversity social justice and activity planning this text is essential for university level teacher educators library educators who prepare pre service teachers and librarians university educators faculty adjunct instructors researchers and students
